

Weather

Generally fair tonight and Tuesday with moderate temperatures.

Washington C. H. Record-Herald

Vol. 68—No. 153

Washington C. H., Ohio, Monday, August 2, 1948

Five Cents

Associated Press

Full Associated Press leased wire service for state, national and world news. The Associated Press is entitled exclusively to use all local news in this newspaper. Telephone: Business office—22121. News office—9701.

Fair Records Here Broken This Season

Annual Exposition Comes to Close Saturday Night with Attendance Total of 28,067 Paid Admissions

With a record Saturday crowd, the most successful Fayette County Fair ever held by the present organization, came to a close late Saturday night, after breaking a series of records, including attendance, receipts, pleased patrons, exhibits, race purses, and satisfied concessionaires.

Everything moved off smoothly from start to finish, and not a single unpleasant incident occurred to mar the Fair in any way, and the week proved to be ideal Fair weather.

Meanderings

By Wash Fayette

The Fayette County Fair has come and gone. Only the memories of one of the biggest, if not the biggest, exposition in history and the goaded grounds with that very togetherness look remain.

Of all of the many improvements made this year, the new features, and the enlarged old island-bys, one stands out—the displays made by the 4-H girls' clubs.

The development of this rural activity in Fayette County in the last few years has been wonderful. No, it is not new; it has just been building up for several years to this year's marvelous outlay of exhibits of domestic handicraft.

Just where the bouquets should go is a question. About the only fair acknowledgement would be with a whole armful for the supervisor and the club leaders.

Miss Margaret Watson, the home demonstration agent, certainly serves much of the credit for supplying the direction and energy of the development. The club leaders, usually mothers and older girls, took care of the details.

The girls 4-H clubs always have played second fiddle to the boys; but because it was planned that day, but rather because the live-back projects of the boys are more spectacular than the dresses, shawls, etc. of the girls.

But, when it comes to patience and hard work, the girls have put in all into their work.

And what is more important than the ability of a girl to run her home efficiently? That is the backbone of American life. It goes to make up the team—the woman in the home and the man out in the fields and feedlots—or whatever business the husband may be.

One boy gets their material Edward and acclaim when their calves, pigs and sheep go into the auction ring.

The girls usually have had to be content with ribbons, a little spare change and just passing glances at their handiwork on display.

But this year it was different, bigger and better, through the help given by a group of Washington C. H. merchants.

The Chamber of Commerce's retail merchants committee got behind the girls' projects. They put up some prizes on their own, prizes that were really worthwhile. And somehow the word got spread around and the crowds at their exhibits were bigger and more appreciative.

It did not get much pre-Fair ballyhoo, because the committees wanted to give the girls a surprise.

Now that it's all over and the girls have some idea of how the people feel, there is no reason why these merchants should not be known: The Gillen Drug Store, the Craig Brothers Co., Steen's Dry Goods Co., Gossard Jewelry Store, Patton's Book Store, Roe Millinery, the J. C. Penney Store and the Cussins & Fearn Store, not to mention the Dayton Power & Light Co., which provided much of the background for the displays.

It is a safe bet that now that this year's success, the 4-H girls' clubs will be getting more and more emphasis.

Amendment Asked To Ohio Bonus Law

YOUNGSTOWN, Aug. 2—(P)—An amendment in the Ohio bonus law was asked yesterday in a resolution adopted by the Ohio Department, Polish Legion of American Veterans. The act should be changed to allow payment of a bonus to brothers and sisters of deceased veterans if there are no other living relatives, the resolution stated. The Ohio department ended its 16th annual meet by electing John M. Lewandowski of Cleveland as chairman.

HOLLYWOOD AND REDS LINKED

WHEN CHICAGO NEWSPAPERS published a photo of Donald T. Mellen, 1, crying bitterly beneath his crib after the disappearance of his pet Pomeranian, a sympathetic reader who saw the picture returned the dog to the little boy. Above, little Donny, shown with his father, Donald A. Mellen, is all smiles now that his pet is back. (International)

Congressional Probe Of Price Hike Looms

Big Corporations Proposed for Spotlight; Dewey Manager Moves into Key Position

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2—(P)—Congressional investigation of recent price boosts by big corporations, especially U. S. Steel, was proposed to the House Banking Committee today by Rep. Spence (D-Ky). Chairman Wolcott (R-Mich.) said representatives of U. S. Steel might be asked to testify before the committee—"perhaps later this week."

Rep. Smith (R-Ohio) objected to the proposal, saying: "We should be careful not to make a scapegoat of industry. It's politicians in Washington who are responsible for the high cost of living. Put the blame where it belongs."

Spence replied: "If we are searching for the cause of high prices, then call here the chairman of the boards and presidents of these big corporations that are making price increases affecting the cost of living and the nation's welfare."

No Report on Probe

Wolcott told Spence the Senate-House joint committee on economics investigated a steel price increase last spring, and made no report—"perhaps indicating the steel companies justified the increase."

The inquiry into price boosts was proposed as the House and Senate banking committees resumed their studies of President Truman's anti-inflation program. This program includes a proposal for an excess profits tax.

Paul Porter, heading the administration's drive for legislation to curb rising prices, told senators that in his opinion Congress has been wasting "much precious time" in considering Mr. Truman's economic plans.

Chairman Thomas B. McCabe of the federal reserve board pleaded with the House group for these two points in the president's anti-inflation program:

1. Controls over consumer credit that would tighten up installment buying;
2. Regulation of bank credit by requiring larger bank reserves.

McCabe said his board changed its position at a meeting today on its recommendation for bank reserve requirements.

He said the board decided increased reserves requirements should be applicable to non-members as well as member banks of the Federal Reserve System. The original reserve proposal would have affected only member banks.

(Please Turn to Page Two)

Woman Industrialist Defies Tax System

WESTPORT, Conn., Aug. 2—(P)—Vivian Kellems has tossed two more letters into her withholding tax fight with the government.

One went yesterday to President Truman and the other to Secretary of the Treasury Snyder. Both asked again that she be indicted for refusing to withhold incomes taxes from her workers' pay envelopes.

Miss Kellems, operator of a small cable grip manufacturing plant, stopped withholding taxes several months ago. She contended that the withholding tax law was unconstitutional and said she wanted to be indicted to bring about a supreme court test of her views.

Miss Kellems, addressing Mr. Truman not only as president "but also as a candidate in the coming election," said that as a voter she wished to know how he felt about the withholding tax.

Trumbull County Fair Gets Under Way Tuesday

WARREN, Aug. 2—(P)—Trumbull County's 103rd annual fair is scheduled to have its official opening tomorrow, running for five days. Gov. Thomas J. Herbert is expected to be a special guest tomorrow which has been designated "Daddies Day."

More Strike Violence Looms

National Guard Protection Approved for Dayton Plant

By JOHN FRYE

DAYTON, Aug. 2—(P)—The Ohio National Guard will march in to maintain order if the Unions Lens Company wishes to reopen its strike-bound plant, Mayor Louis Lohrey announced today.

He said Gov. Thomas J. Herbert had promised to send in the guard should the company, plagued with violence, try to reopen tomorrow. The management will decide late today whether to attempt it. The company refused to resume operations today when a tentative agreement to end the 90-day strike fell through. Rank-and-file members of the CIO United Electrical Workers rejected a settlement agreement reached by their leaders and company officials.

As they threw up another heavy picket line at the plant, Gov. Thomas J. Herbert expressed "complete disappointment" and declared he would send in the National Guard if fighting broke out again. Despite an injunction limiting pickets, approximately 200 of them assembled at the plant entrance. All but six dispersed, however, when non-striking workers heeded a company appeal, and did not appear.

Call for Pickets

The union appealed to other unions to send pickets to the plant tomorrow in event the company should seek to resume operations. "Be on the picket line at 6:30 A. M., tomorrow," Bruce Van Winkle, a shop committeeman for

(Please Turn to Page Two)

Flying Boat Missing With 52 Passengers

PARIS, Aug. 2—(P)—Air France held out hope today for its huge flying boat which vanished in the South Atlantic early Sunday with 52 persons aboard. None was American.

"We must consider the plane missing, but not lost," a spokesman for the airline said "the search is continuing."

Warships and planes scouted the area. The 73-ton craft was enroute from Martinique to West Africa and was 1,200 miles off Dakar when its last signal was heard shortly after midnight Saturday. A message from Martinique said the plane's last known position was 19:27 north and 38:25 west.

It is believed the six-engine latecoercer plane could remain afloat for several days in a moderate sea.

Price of Hogs Hits New High

CHICAGO, Aug. 2—(P)—Live hogs set another new price record today at $31.10 a hundred pounds for one load, 10 cents higher than the all-time high made Friday.

The general hog market was steady to 25 cents higher than Friday. Cattle were steady to 50 cents lower and sheep steady to 50 cents a hundred pounds higher than Friday's trade.

$32 IN CLEVELAND

CLEVELAND, Aug. 2—(P)—Best grade hogs sold for $32 a hundred pounds today to set a new high for the 72-year-old Cleveland livestock market.

Livestock officials also said the price might have made a new world's record.

6 Employees Held In Theft of Meat

COLUMBUS, Aug. 2—(P)—Six employees of the Swift and Company's Columbus plant are in Franklin County Jail today for questioning in the thefts of thousands of pounds of meat and other articles during the last year.

The six were arrested yesterday by Marion Township constables and a Swift and Co. private detective. They included two war veterans, police said.

The Franklin County sheriff's office said it is holding a quantity of meat, shortening, soap, meat sauce and other Swift and Co. products seized in the homes of the suspects.

Agricultural Oligarchy Claimed

TOLEDO, Aug. 2—(P)—Residents of municipalities are being relegated to the role of "second class citizens" because of an "agricultural oligarchy," says Mayor George Welsh of Grand Rapids, Mich.

Welsh, president of the United States Conference of Mayors, was the principal speaker Saturday at Mayor's Day program, attended by officials of nearly 40 Ohio and Michigan communities.

"In this great industrial nation we are living under an agricultural oligarchy that is neither friendly nor benevolent," he said. "Practically every legislature is dominated by rural votes."

Welsh said residents of municipalities are being relegated to a role of "second class citizens," because "votes do not count like rural votes."

He said in a recent tour of American cities he found the pattern the same.

Western Diplomats To Meet with Stalin

Allied Envoys in Moscow for Confabs While Food Supply to Germany Boosted

LONDON, Aug. 2—(P)—The London Star said today western power diplomats will see Prime Minister Stalin tonight in Moscow to discuss the Berlin crisis and other international affairs.

The newspaper said American, French and British envoys there will try "to determine the objective of Russian foreign policy." It added:

"They believe it is vital in the present state of international relations that there should be no misunderstanding about the foreign policy of the major powers. In this spirit Stalin will be clearly told the attitude of the western nations."

The British Press Association said a meeting of Stalin with the western envoys is "expected" to take place tonight and "may lead to developments of the utmost importance."

The agency said that if the discussions are successful they could lead to a meeting of President Truman, Stalin, Prime Minister Attlee and French Premier Andre Marie.

The Star said the "sole purpose of the present Moscow discussions is to discover whether a basis exists for four-power negotiations on all outstanding European problems."

Western power spokesmen repeatedly have emphasized, however, that the Russians first must lift their blockade of Berlin before there can be a general four-power approach to European problems.

GERMANS EAT BETTER

BERLIN, Aug. 2—(P)—The 40,000,000 Germans in the combined British-American zones now are getting the highest food rations since occupation began, American military government said today.

AMG, in a semi-monthly statement on occupation affairs, said three factors are chiefly responsible for this: improved crops, currency reform and aid from the European Recovery Program.

The improved food situation also was given the main credit for boosting Ruhr coal production to a new postwar record during July and for pushing overall industrial production in Bizonia back to the postwar high established in April.

The actual food issue to the normal consumer in Bizonia during July jumped to 1,990 calories per day, the AMG report said. This is the highest basic ration yet attained in postwar Germany.

CONTROL OF DANUBE

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia, Aug. 2—(P)—Russia circulated today a (Please turn to Page Two)

Homeless Arabs Problem for UN

CAIRO, Aug. 2—(P)—Disease and hunger threaten 300,000 to 350,000 Palestine Arab refugees, Sir Raphael Cilento of the United Nations said today.

Sent to the Middle East to survey the refugee problem, Sir Raphael said "there still lingers doubt about the cholera possibility among the refugees but we think and hope it is ended."

He said "there is also malaria in some areas in some seasons."

If the Arabs cannot be sent back to their homes in Palestine, Sir Raphael said they will be resettled "and settlement so far has been a difficult problem." The United Nations security council is considering the refugee problem in Lake Success today.

Source of Money For Communists Bared at Probe

Confessions of Spy Start Unraveling Organization in U. S.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2—(P)—Louis Budenz, repented Communist, told senators today that the Communist party gets "a very big financial take" from Hollywood.

The former managing editor of the Communist Daily Worker, who quit the Communist party to become a Fordham University professor, testified in a senate expenditures subcommittee inquiry into Communist infiltrations into the government.

Miss Elizabeth Bentley (Confessed Communist Spy)

He described the Communist party of the United States as "a fifth column of Soviet Russia."

He named the late Jacob Golos as head of a highly secret Communist party control commission in this country—an agency he said was used to discipline party members and keep them in line.

Golos was the chief contact with the party for Miss Elizabeth Bentley, admitted onetime Soviet spy, who has testified that she got military secrets from government officials and workers which were channeled to Moscow.

Quarrel Over Money

Budenz said that the control commission and the party's finance committee were highly secret organizations, even within the party. Chairman Ferguson (R-Mich.) (Please Turn to Page Two)

3rd Set of Twins Born in 27 Months

AKRON, Aug. 2—(P)—The 30-year-old wife of a chemical company worker was in good condition in Peoples' Hospital today after giving birth to her third set of twins in 27 months.

The parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Summers, live in nearby Doylestown. Summers is 32.

The latest arrivals, Charles and John, weighed four pounds each at birth yesterday and like their brothers and sisters were premature. They were reported "doing fine."

Susan and Patricia, the first set, were born May 26, 1946, and Paul and Michael, the next two, Sept. 2, 1947.

Sportsmen Killed In Ontario Crash

SEARCHMONT, Ont., Aug. 2—(P)—Donald H. Werner, 28 Akron, Ohio, was one of three sportsmen killed yesterday when their amphibian plane crashed on a fog-shrouded hill.

Werner, identified as a U. S. vice consul to Greenland, and his companions, Henry G. Thibert, 29, Detroit, and John Litzen, 40, Cedarville, Mich., were flying back to Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., from a fishing trip in the Ontario backwoods.

The bodies were recovered and sent to Sault Ste. Marie. Construction workers repairing a nearby bridge said they heard a crash and an explosion. The plane hit a 1,000 foot hill.

Youngstown Store Burns

YOUNGSTOWN, Aug. 2—(P)—Fire destroyed the Western Auto Supply Co.'s South Side store yesterday, causing loss estimated at nearly $100,000.

TB Clinic To Be Here August 17

Monthly Examinations To Be Conducted

The first tuberculosis clinic will be held in the Fayette County Health Department office from 1 P. M. until 3:30 P. M. August 17. Miss Gretchen Darlington, head nurse, announced Monday.

The clinic, arranged on a monthly basis by Health Commissioner Dr. Gordon B. Savage, will have Dr. Damon Wetterhouse from Mt. Logan Sanatorium, who will examine patients through the fluoroscope. Patients in the first clinic will be those referred to the health department by their family physicians. They will be received by appointment during the hours of the clinic, Miss Darlington said.

The fluoroscope in use is the one which was furnished the department last May by the Fayette County Tuberculosis and Health Association. It has already been used for a heart clinic which was conducted by the health department in June.

Dayton Strike

(Continued from Page One)
the UE, shouted over a public address system to unionists at the plant entrance.

"Let's see what the guard looks like. They'll be there."

The agreement of the UE leaders and the company to end the 90-day strike was rejected by members of Local 768 six hours after it was signed. The vote of rejection was announced as unanimous.

Arthur L. Garfield, international UE representative who promised that the rank-and-file would ratify the proposed settlement, said later he would ask Mayor Louis Lohrey to arrange another conference with the management.

Gov. Herbert said he was completely disappointed over the rejection. He added the understanding was that the "leaders" were empowered to reach a settlement and put into writing the terms they (the union leaders) asked.

Threat Is Denied

In their statement accompanying the vote results, the union said the negotiations with the governor and company representatives were conducted with use of the guard as a threat.

Gov. Herbert denied this saying: "The union leaders were not forced into any agreement. It was achieved with full understanding and agreement on both sides."

But, Herbert added:

"If there is any violation of the peace at the Univis plant and Mayor Lohrey requests it we will furnish national guard assistance."

The company in a radio broadcast this morning told employees planning to return to work to stay away today. Previous attempts of employees to cross picket lines after the plant was reopened last Monday resulted in fighting and police used tear gas to break up the violence.

The strike headed into a congressional hearing called by Rep. Clare Hoffman (R-Mich) who arrived here last night. Chairman of a sub-group of the House committee on education and labor, Hoffman said he would question both sides of the dispute.

Twenty-seven subpoenas were served on union officials and pickets before the vote on the strike question.

Louis Kaplan, UE field agent, assailed Representative Hoffman. Of the congressional committee hearing he declared:

"They don't frighten the UE under political blackmail."

Crude petroleum and natural gas supply almost 30 per cent of the energy used by the world's engines and machines.

Don J. Gibson, Mgr.

Friendliness MAKES THE DIFFERENCE WHEN YOU WANT A LOAN... that's why we lean over backwards to see that you get the money you want... when you want it... the way you want.

111 N. Fayette St.
Phone 24371

Economy SAVINGS & LOAN CO.
CAPITAL FINANCE CORP.

Dirt Track Auto Racer Meets Death at Norwalk

NORWALK, Aug. 2—(AP)—Dirt track racing claimed the life of 23-year-old Robert Fiesel of Warrensville Heights yesterday. His car went out of control on the far turn of the half-mile oval here, broke through a fence and plunged against a barn.

Mainly About People

Mr. Ralph Pope of the Wildwood Road underwent a successful major operation at White Cross Hospital, Columbus, Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Allie Dearth are the parents of a nine pound daughter, born at their home on the Mark Road Sunday.

Bernard Street, entered Mt. Carmel Hospital, Columbus, Saturday for observation and treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. John Jackson (colored) of Willard Street are the parents of a son born in Grant Hospital, Columbus Sunday evening.

Glenn Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Smith, of Jasper Mills, is recovering at his home from a tonsil-adenoid operation, performed at the office of Dr. W. L. Wead in Sabina Friday afternoon.

Mr. George Hymrod was taken from his home, 903 Millwood Avenue, to Mt. Carmel Hospital, Sunday for observation and treatment. The trip was made in the Gerstner ambulance.

Mrs. J. A. Bock, who has been a patient in University Hospital, Columbus, for the past six weeks, after undergoing major surgery was returned to home 503 Pearl Street, Sunday morning in the Klever ambulance.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Shoemaker, nee Virginia Warner, of Springfield are announcing the birth of a six pound fifteen ounce daughter, Nancy Jane in the Springfield City Hospital, Springfield, Friday July 30.

Misses Betty Justice, Minnie Sutterfield, and Mr. Howard Walls, of this city have completed their training at the Capital School of Beauty in Columbus, and have passed the State Board of Cosmetology.

The Weather

COYT A. STOOKEY, Observer
Minimum yesterday 55
Maximum yesterday 82
Precipitation 0
Minimum 8 A. M. today 57
Maximum this date 1947 80
Minimum this date 1947 57
Precipitation this date 1947 0

Associated Press temperature maximum yesterday and minimum chart showing weather conditions last night.
Akron, clear 63 62
Atlantic City, city 72 67
Chicago, clear 80 58
Cincinnati, pt. city 84 63
Cleveland, clear 85 53
Columbus, clear 86 62
Dayton, clear 85 60
Detroit, clear 82 56
Duluth, pt. city 71 52
Huntington, W. Va., fog 85 58
Indianapolis, clear 85 58
Los Angeles, city 86 64
Louisville, clear 88 64
Memphis, St. Paul, city 75 52
Pittsburgh, clear 83 64
Toledo, clear 83 51
Washington, D. C., city 74 70

For Free Wheel Balance Have Your New Goodyears Installed At —

Universal Service Station

Cor. Fayette and Market Streets Phone 24891

TUESDAY - WEDNESDAY
"Miracle On 34th Street"
John Payne — Maureen O'Hara

It's Too Hot To Cook - -

Let Us Do It For You

— We Serve —
Good Home Cooked Food

— Day And Night —

Dinners — Lunches — Short Orders

Fried Chicken — Fine Steaks

Let Us Pack Your Picnic Lunch

Just Call And Tell Us What You Like.

Country Club Drive In

RALPH PIATT, Proprietor

PHONE 31171

School Plans Are Announced

Twelve-Day Christmas Vacation Looming

A 12 day Christmas vacation is in store for the county schools during the next school year according to the school schedule which was released Monday by Mrs. William J. Hilty at the office of the superintendent of schools.

The first semester will begin September 7 and end January 21. The second semester begins January 24 and ends May 27.

School will be dismissed October 29 for the Central Ohio Teachers' Association meeting, November 11, for Armistice Day and November 25 and 26 for Thanksgiving. Christmas vacation will be from December 22 until January 3.

During the second semester February 22 will be a holiday and schools will also be dismissed April 15 to 18, which includes Good Friday and the Monday after Easter.

Miss McConnaughey Paid Final Tribute

Funeral services for Virginia Lee McConnaughey were held at 6 P. M. Sunday at the Alvin G. Little Funeral Home.

Rev. Clarence P. Miller, pastor of the Jeffersonville Methodist Church, conducted the services. He offered prayer, read Scripture and gave the sermon after which he read the hymn, "Abide With Me," and the poem "Rock of Ages."

Pallbearers during the ceremonies were Clem Hockwalt, William Roof, Arthur Mills, Thomas Arnold and Floyd Palmer.

Burial was in Koons Cemetery near Milledgeville.

Funds for Reds

(Continued from Page One)
asked how the Communists got money to finance their operations. Budenz said that dues accounted for some funds, gifts from wealthy persons for others, adding:

"There was a very big take from Hollywood."

"In fact, it was so great that there was a dispute within the party about it."

"The California district wanted to keep the money, but the finance committee ruled that it must go to the national office and then be distributed."

Budenz said he was connected with the Midwest Daily Record in Chicago—a paper he said was controlled by the party. At that time he learned that the Communists were receiving funds from abroad, he testified.

The former Communist editor named William Weiner as head of the finance committee. He said Lemuel Harris, whom he described as "an off-spring of Wall Street," and the late Charles Crumbine were members of the powerful party finance committee.

He said that Golos, Clarence Derba and sometimes Alexander Biddleman, were members of the control committee.

Complete information on Communist party members—including who they associated and talked with, who they borrowed money from and what their relations were with their families. This they used to "blackmail" any members who gave signs of wanting to quit, he explained.

"The Communist party has a slogan," he said, "It is 'you can never resign voluntarily from the party, you must always be expelled.'"

Budenz said the Communist setup is divided into three groups. He listed these as:

1. The underground, or roots of the trees, which he said maintains direct contact with Moscow. He named Gerhart Eisler as an example of a person in this classification. Eisler has been described by a house committee as the No. 1 Communist in America.

2. The trunk, which he said includes open party officials, such as William Z. Foster, Communist president.

3. The branches, including "people who profess to be non-Communists but are Communists."

Budenz, who left the party in 1945, told the committee that the party's status as fifth column for Russia in this country is proved by three factors:

1. "The Communist party has never found any defect in Russian policy" and its leaders "must do what the Kremlin orders at any specific moment."

2. The party for years received direct subsidies from Moscow in the form of free news. Budenz said this practice was halted by former Attorney General Francis Biddle.

3. From 80 to 90 per cent of the party's leaders have been trained in Moscow.

He has heard from Miss Bentley, confessed former Communist spy, that dozens of party members and sympathizers gave her secret information, including military data.

The subcommittee will also hear further testimony from William W. Remington, department of commerce official on leave. He was one of those Miss Bentley told the committee had given her government secrets. This Remington denied.

Budenz a native of Indianapolis, testified that he was a member of the Communist party for 10 years from 1935 until 1945. He said he was a member of the party's national committee for nine years, three of them secretly and six openly.

Price Hike Probe

(Continued from Page One)
GOP Presidential Candidate Thomas E. Dewey may be keeping hands off the special session of Congress personally, but an effective "grapevine" has been set up in his behalf.

The "grapevine" Republican congressional leaders said today, is Herbert Brownell, Jr., the New York governor's campaign manager.

And an appropriate slogan, they added jokingly, would be: "Don't make a move without seeing Herb."

Brownell has set up headquarters in Washington for the Dewey campaign and party leaders on capitol hill have been in frequent contact with him.

A close associate said today that President Truman has no intention of calling Congress back for a second extra session.

This official, who declined to be quoted by name, said the president will pin his hopes for election on his differences with the Republican leadership over price control, housing and other domestic issues.

He said Mr. Truman is not likely to send any further message to the present extra session. It assembled at his call last Monday apparently determined to deny him virtually every request. Its leaders said his motive was "political."

Appropriations Asked

Congress was asked by President Truman today to approve supplemental appropriations totaling $11,305,800.

A White House statement said the new funds are needed: (1) To put into effect laws passed in the closing rush of the regular session; and (2) to provide money where funds available are insufficient to carry out the mandates of Congress.

The recommendations include $6,000,000 for the Federal Security Agency, $3,075,800 for the Civil Service Commission, $2,000,000 for the displaced persons commission and $100,000 for the motor carrier claims commission and $130,000 for the bureau of mines.

Mr. Truman also submitted administrative cost estimates of $470,000 for the war claims commission and $100,000 for the federal security agency, to be made from the war claims fund.

Confab with Stalin

(Continued from Page One)
proposed Danube River pact which would give eastern Europe's Communist-dominated states virtually exclusive control over the 1,800-mile long trade artery.

Andrei Vishinsky, Russian deputy foreign minister, told the 11-nation conference he will present the document formally tomorrow. Its passage is regarded as a certainty, probably without major change. The Communist states outvote the western powers seven to three in this meeting. Austria sits as an observer without a vote.

Russia and her neighbors demonstrated their unity on the Danubian question in the first three conference sessions. The conference adopted a rule for a simple majority to govern decisions. France withdrew a proposal that the decisions be made by a two-thirds vote after Vishinsky opposed it.

The Russian proposal specifically would prohibit the use of Danube waters by naval vessels of all non-Danubian countries.

FRESH LAKE PICKEREL.
Enslens' Dot Store.

Markets

Local Quotations

GRAIN
Wheat	2.03
Corn	1.85
Oats	.65
Soybeans	2.70
BUTTER-EGGS-POULTRY
F. B. Co-op Quotations
Cream	75c
Eggs	47c
Leghorn Hens	20c
Leghorn Hens	18c
Heavy Springers	36c
Leghorn Springers	33c
Old Roosters	10c

Livestock Prices

(FAYETTE STOCK YARDS)
WASHINGTON C. H. (Fayette Stock Yards)—Hogs, 180-225 lbs $30.50; sows 22.50 down.

CHICAGO, Aug. 2—(AP)—(USDA)—Easily sold 7,000, total 9,000; unevenly steady to 25 cents higher; most advance on sows but rather slow; top 31.10 to 30.50; another new record high here; bulk good and choice 170-240 lb 30.25-31; 250-280 lb 28.75-30; few 290-325 lb 27-28.50; heavier weights scarce; good and choice sows under 300 lb 26.50-27; practical top on sows 27; few choice 250-275 lb up to 27.50; 320-350 lbs 24.50-26; 375-425 lb 22.50-24; 450-525 lb 20.50-22; good clearance.

Salable cattle 12,000, total 12,500; salable calves 500, total 500; fed steers and heifers steady to 50 cents lower; high-choice kinds fully steady; cows and bulls steady to 25 cents lower; vealers and stocker and feeder cattle steady; choice fed steers and yearlings $38-41; latter price top paid for 1,049 lb averages; common to low-grade grades $20-25; choice 925 lb heifers 38.50; canners and cutters 13.50-15.50; medium to good cows 22.50-26; sausage and beef bulls $25 down; vealers $31 down.

Salable sheep 2,000, total 3,500; spring lambs and ewes fully steady; yearlings 25-30 cents higher; good and choice spring lambs practically absent; quotable at least to 29.50; odd head choice $30; medium to good spring lambs 26.50-28.50; cut to low-medium kinds $17-24; load mixed medium to choice 86 lb 27-28; yearlings with No. 1 pelts 28.50; load held above 26.50; load 83 lb recently shorn yearlings 24.50; aged slaughter ewes $12 down; deck common light-weights 9.50.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 2—(AP)—U. S. Dept. Agr.—Salable hogs 2,000, early trade on barrows and gilts fairly active.

Our modern air condition plant is making MOUNTAIN TOP weather for YOU!

MONDAY — TUESDAY

A love story to make the whole world happy!

JOHN L. LINDY PRODUCTIONS, INC. PRESENTS
RUSSELL JANNNEY'S
"THE MIRACLE OF THE BELLS"

starring FRANK MACMURRAY - WALLI - SINATRA

with LEE J. COBB HAROLD VERMILYEA

Plus

CARTOON & NEWS

Shows 7:00-9:00
Feature Shown First

steadily to mostly 25 higher; generally steady; good and choice 170-240 lb barrows and gilts $31-25; few lots $25; 285 lb $28-30; few over 350 lb to $25; few choice sows under 300 lb 23.75-24; bulk good and choice 350-500 lb 20.50-23.50; heavier weights down to $19.
Cattle 1,400, calves 350, moderately active general slaughter cattle trade, about steady, but less active than Friday, high asking prices partial retarding factor; individual choice 1,000 lb steer $39; few dry feds held around $36; truck lots 975 lb steers and 750 lb heifers $35; bulk medium and good steers and heifers $29-33.50; common and medium $24-28.50; cutter common $19-23.50; high medium and good beef cows scarce; common and medium largely 20.50-23; most canners and cutters $15-19.50; good sausage bull $26; medium and good 24.50-25.50; cutter common lightweight $19-24; vealers generally steady top $33; good and choice bulk $30-32; common and medium grades mainly $20-25.
Sheep 800, slow early trade on slaughter lambs, about steady; ewes scarce quotable steady; few lambs at early top 30.50; mostly mixed medium to choice grades, bucks included $28-30; light cut common $15-25; slaughter ewes eligible to $10.

Grain Markets

CHICAGO, Aug. 2—(AP)—Grains slid into new low ground in the first few minutes of trading today and spent the rest of the session without doing much of anything.
Soft wheat heavy at the start. With the exception of September and December wheat, all contracts of major grains reached new seasonal lows. Also making new seasonal lows were all soybean contracts and all old except September.

The market steadied after the early selling was out of the way. Increased flour business helped to hold the drop in wheat, and some industrial success in wiping out early declines.

Trading activity continued light.

Always A Great Show At The Cool State

Matinee Daily At 1:30 P. M.

chakeres' STATE Always 2 Big Hits

Today & Tues.

2 NEW HITS

Feature No. 1

First Time Shown in City!

THE STORY WITH IMPACT
TO THE ENDS OF THE EARTH
DICK POWELL SIGNE HASSE

Feature No. 2

First Time Shown in City!

A Sweet STORY FULL OF SINGING TUNES!
Marry Lou
ROBERT LOWERY JOAN BARTON

CASH GRAIN
CHICAGO, Aug. 2—(AP)—WHEAT: No. 2 red 2.20 1/2; No. 3 hard tough 2.10 1/2; No. 3 red tough 2.15-17; CORN: No. 1 yellow 82; OATS: No. 1 heavy mixed 77; No. 3 mixed 69 1/2; No. 4 heavy mixed 71; No. 1 white 72-73; No. 2 heavy white 74; No. 3 heavy white 70 1/2-71; No. 3 white 69-70 1/2.
Barley nominal; malting 1.35-78; feed 1.10-35. Soybeans: none.

Financial Market

NEW YORK, Aug. 2—(AP)—The stock market showed some signs of recovery today.

Many of the rails pushed narrowly ahead, and some industrials succeeded in wiping out early declines.

Trading activity continued light.

Produce Prices

CINCINNATI, Aug. 2—(AP)—Eggs—cases included, U. S. consumer grades: A large 54-61 1/2; A medium 50-56 1/2; B large 51 1/2-53 1/2; wholesale grades, extra large, medium 60 percent A quality, 56 1/2; current receipts 39-41.

Poultry fowls, heavy 5 lbs and over 30-32; heavy fryers up to 5 lbs 27-29; lb prints 75 1/2; 1 lb prints 74; Leghorn and 24-27; old roosters 16-17 1/2.
Butter, wholesale, 1 lb print 17; Federal order brand 17; 1 lb print 17; premium 70; regular 67.
Potatoes 3.00-4.75.

Although Pikes Peak 385 feet lower than Mt. Everest, it is the highest in the United States surpassed by 27 Colorado peaks.

Always A Great Show At The Palace

Evening Shows 6 P. M.

Palace Always 2

Today Tues. & Wed.

2 BIG HITS

Feature No. 1

Lana Turner John Garfield

IN M.C.M.'S
THE POSTMAN ALWAYS RINGS TWICE
JOHN GARFIELD LANA TURNER
AMES TROTTER BECK

Feature No. 2

Gene Autry

"Riding On Rainbow"
Smiley Burnette
FRANCES GRANT
REPUBLIC PICTURE

August Clearance Specials

Men's Summer Weight Suits Brown Pinstripe

Sizes 36 - 40 - 41 Reg.

Light Biege

Sizes 38 Reg. — 40 Stout

$18.50

Medium Grey Tropical Wool

Size 38 Reg. $24.50

Light Grey Tropical

Size 42 Short Stout $27.50

Men's Belts Values to $1.50..... 73c

Men's Neck Wear Reg. $1 and $1.50 49c

Men's Sport Shirts Reg. $2.95 Value $2.50

Men's and Boys' Swimming Trunks 1/2 Price

Straw Hats 1/2 Price

CRAIG'S

MEN'S STORE

AT PENNEY'S

1/2 price sale!
Dorothy Perkins DEODORANT regular $1.00 jar NOW 50¢ plus tax Limited Time

- retards perspiration
- creamy soft
- antiseptic
- greaseless — stainless
- non-irritating
- fragrant

Fire Chief Hall Warns Against Charged Wires

Care In Handling Appliances and Cords Is Urged

A warning to the public in the use and handling of electrical cords and electrical appliances, has been issued by Fire Chief George R. Hall.

His warning says:

"Seldom a day goes by but what we read in the daily press of someone being electrocuted or severely burned, simply because of carelessness, neglect, or the improper handling or use of one of mankind's best servants, electricity."

"Most times it is a case of not knowing, or doing the things which should be done to prevent such things happening."

"A few things to remember about the use and the handling of electrical cords and appliances are that while working on or repairing appliances of this kind, is first, that the appliance is disconnected from the source of electrical supply, and that after repairing any appliance, that you are sure that all insulation is in good condition before attempting to plug the appliance into an outlet. It may have a bare wire which would cause a short circuit, or which may come in contact with the person attempting to use the appliance, and should such be the case, the person handling or using the appliance may receive a severe shock or burn, or even be electrocuted."

"People should avoid, where possible to do so, the contact of water pipes and in fact anything that may carry a ground while using defective electrical equipment. If any appliance is believed to be faulty it should be disconnected at once from the electric circuit to which it is connected, and the proper repairs made before attempting to use it again."

"When appliance cords become worn or frayed, have them replaced at once by a competent electrician, using cords approved by the National Board of Fire Underwriters, and be sure the proper cord is used to repair the appliance."

"To play safe, before attempting to unplug any electric cord which has the appearance of being defective, pull the main electric switch first, then you are pretty safe."

He said that yesterday in a report—based on the findings of his economic advisors—which he sent to Congress.

But Senator Taft came right back by saying the report makes it "very difficult to see any emergency that would require calling a special session."

The senator did say he hopes Congress will do something about the price question.

But at this point it's hard to see how Congress can do much about it because

1. The Senate is tied in knots now by a filibuster of the southern Democrats against an anti-poll tax bill. True, Senator Taft says he hopes this filibuster will be over by next Wednesday.

2. But, if Congress adjourns by next Saturday, that leaves only Thursday, Friday and Saturday to act on prices.

On top of all this a couple of Democrats—Reps. Monroney of Oklahoma and Boggs of Louisiana—made in, effect, this suggestion to the Republicans:

"If you don't like Mr. Truman's proposals, then why don't you Republicans set up some program of your own to stop inflation?"

Time alone will give you the answer on whether Mr. Truman or the Republicans the right.

BOARD IS NAMED

WILMINGTON—Members of the new zoning board have been appointed by Mayor Robert C. Stephens. They are Harley Day, Mrs. William Beckett, Donald Cowgill and Karl Kerr.

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2—(AP)—Boom or bust?

You'll find out. But you'll have to stick around for the answer. How long? Maybe months. Maybe years.

There seems to be a little divided opinion on the subject.

Here, after a week of the special session of Congress, you're no nearer an answer than you were before President Truman called the session.

Mr. Truman, full of gloom and worry about the future, warns the Republicans who control Congress they'd better do something about inflation.

But the Republicans shrug him off and say he's playing politics in this election year.

So how can you—since you're no expert in economics but just an average American hoping everything will come out all right—know the answer to this one:

We're in a boom time now with the greatest number of people ever employed in American history. So—

Will the boom end, sooner or later, in a sickening, soul-shattering bust? Or will this country straighten out, with inflation gradually subsiding and leveling off on a long, smooth tide of prosperity?

Before the special session started Monday, it was pretty clear that the Republicans were in no mood to pay attention to Mr. Truman or his warnings.

They listened to him, looked at his recommendations and said they don't think much of them.

With one week of the special session already gone, there's a good chance it will fold up altogether by next Saturday and go home.

At least that's what Senator Taft of Ohio, Republican leader in the Senate, says.

Angered by the Republicans' week-long coolness to his warnings of trouble ahead unless something is done quickly about inflation, Mr. Truman yesterday accused Congress of "blind disregard of the dangers that beset our path."

To that Senator Taft replied that Mr. Truman is "making political speeches" and actually "doesn't want to stop inflation."

Mr. Truman said a "business collapse," a "depression," may result if his recommendations aren't followed.

He said that yesterday in a report—based on the findings of his economic advisors—which he sent to Congress.

But Senator Taft came right back by saying the report makes it "very difficult to see any emergency that would require calling a special session."

The senator did say he hopes Congress will do something about the price question.

But at this point it's hard to see how Congress can do much about it because

1. The Senate is tied in knots now by a filibuster of the southern Democrats against an anti-poll tax bill. True, Senator Taft says he hopes this filibuster will be over by next Wednesday.

2. But, if Congress adjourns by next Saturday, that leaves only Thursday, Friday and Saturday to act on prices.

On top of all this a couple of Democrats—Reps. Monroney of Oklahoma and Boggs of Louisiana—made in, effect, this suggestion to the Republicans:

"If you don't like Mr. Truman's proposals, then why don't you Republicans set up some program of your own to stop inflation?"

Time alone will give you the answer on whether Mr. Truman or the Republicans the right.

BOARD IS NAMED

WILMINGTON—Members of the new zoning board have been appointed by Mayor Robert C. Stephens. They are Harley Day, Mrs. William Beckett, Donald Cowgill and Karl Kerr.

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2—(AP)—Boom or bust?

You'll find out. But you'll have to stick around for the answer. How long? Maybe months. Maybe years.

There seems to be a little divided opinion on the subject.

Here, after a week of the special session of Congress, you're no nearer an answer than you were before President Truman called the session.

Mr. Truman, full of gloom and worry about the future, warns the Republicans who control Congress they'd better do something about inflation.

But the Republicans shrug him off and say he's playing politics in this election year.

So how can you—since you're no expert in economics but just an average American hoping everything will come out all right—know the answer to this one:

We're in a boom time now with the greatest number of people ever employed in American history. So—

Will the boom end, sooner or later, in a sickening, soul-shattering bust? Or will this country straighten out, with inflation gradually subsiding and leveling off on a long, smooth tide of prosperity?

Before the special session started Monday, it was pretty clear that the Republicans were in no mood to pay attention to Mr. Truman or his warnings.

They listened to him, looked at his recommendations and said they don't think much of them.

With one week of the special session already gone, there's a good chance it will fold up altogether by next Saturday and go home.

At least that's what Senator Taft of Ohio, Republican leader in the Senate, says.

Angered by the Republicans' week-long coolness to his warnings of trouble ahead unless something is done quickly about inflation, Mr. Truman yesterday accused Congress of "blind disregard of the dangers that beset our path."

To that Senator Taft replied that Mr. Truman is "making political speeches" and actually "doesn't want to stop inflation."

Mr. Truman said a "business collapse," a "depression," may result if his recommendations aren't followed.

He said that yesterday in a report—based on the findings of his economic advisors—which he sent to Congress.

But Senator Taft came right back by saying the report makes it "very difficult to see any emergency that would require calling a special session."

The senator did say he hopes Congress will do something about the price question.

But at this point it's hard to see how Congress can do much about it because

1. The Senate is tied in knots now by a filibuster of the southern Democrats against an anti-poll tax bill. True, Senator Taft says he hopes this filibuster will be over by next Wednesday.

2. But, if Congress adjourns by next Saturday, that leaves only Thursday, Friday and Saturday to act on prices.

On top of all this a couple of Democrats—Reps. Monroney of Oklahoma and Boggs of Louisiana—made in, effect, this suggestion to the Republicans:

"If you don't like Mr. Truman's proposals, then why don't you Republicans set up some program of your own to stop inflation?"

Time alone will give you the answer on whether Mr. Truman or the Republicans the right.

BOARD IS NAMED

WILMINGTON—Members of the new zoning board have been appointed by Mayor Robert C. Stephens. They are Harley Day, Mrs. William Beckett, Donald Cowgill and Karl Kerr.

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2—(AP)—Boom or bust?

You'll find out. But you'll have to stick around for the answer. How long? Maybe months. Maybe years.

There seems to be a little divided opinion on the subject.

Here, after a week of the special session of Congress, you're no nearer an answer than you were before President Truman called the session.

Mr. Truman, full of gloom and worry about the future, warns the Republicans who control Congress they'd better do something about inflation.

But the Republicans shrug him off and say he's playing politics in this election year.

So how can you—since you're no expert in economics but just an average American hoping everything will come out all right—know the answer to this one:

We're in a boom time now with the greatest number of people ever employed in American history. So—

Will the boom end, sooner or later, in a sickening, soul-shattering bust? Or will this country straighten out, with inflation gradually subsiding and leveling off on a long, smooth tide of prosperity?

Before the special session started Monday, it was pretty clear that the Republicans were in no mood to pay attention to Mr. Truman or his warnings.

They listened to him, looked at his recommendations and said they don't think much of them.

With one week of the special session already gone, there's a good chance it will fold up altogether by next Saturday and go home.

At least that's what Senator Taft of Ohio, Republican leader in the Senate, says.

Angered by the Republicans' week-long coolness to his warnings of trouble ahead unless something is done quickly about inflation, Mr. Truman yesterday accused Congress of "blind disregard of the dangers that beset our path."

To that Senator Taft replied that Mr. Truman is "making political speeches" and actually "doesn't want to stop inflation."

Mr. Truman said a "business collapse," a "depression," may result if his recommendations aren't followed.

He said that yesterday in a report—based on the findings of his economic advisors—which he sent to Congress.

But Senator Taft came right back by saying the report makes it "very difficult to see any emergency that would require calling a special session."

The senator did say he hopes Congress will do something about the price question.

But at this point it's hard to see how Congress can do much about it because

1. The Senate is tied in knots now by a filibuster of the southern Democrats against an anti-poll tax bill. True, Senator Taft says he hopes this filibuster will be over by next Wednesday.

2. But, if Congress adjourns by next Saturday, that leaves only Thursday, Friday and Saturday to act on prices.

On top of all this a couple of Democrats—Reps. Monroney of Oklahoma and Boggs of Louisiana—made in, effect, this suggestion to the Republicans:

"If you don't like Mr. Truman's proposals, then why don't you Republicans set up some program of your own to stop inflation?"

Time alone will give you the answer on whether Mr. Truman or the Republicans the right.

BOARD IS NAMED

WILMINGTON—Members of the new zoning board have been appointed by Mayor Robert C. Stephens. They are Harley Day, Mrs. William Beckett, Donald Cowgill and Karl Kerr.

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2—(AP)—Boom or bust?

You'll find out. But you'll have to stick around for the answer. How long? Maybe months. Maybe years.

There seems to be a little divided opinion on the subject.

Here, after a week of the special session of Congress, you're no nearer an answer than you were before President Truman called the session.

Mr. Truman, full of gloom and worry about the future, warns the Republicans who control Congress they'd better do something about inflation.

But the Republicans shrug him off and say he's playing politics in this election year.

So how can you—since you're no expert in economics but just an average American hoping everything will come out all right—know the answer to this one:

We're in a boom time now with the greatest number of people ever employed in American history. So—

Will the boom end, sooner or later, in a sickening, soul-shattering bust? Or will this country straighten out, with inflation gradually subsiding and leveling off on a long, smooth tide of prosperity?

Before the special session started Monday, it was pretty clear that the Republicans were in no mood to pay attention to Mr. Truman or his warnings.

They listened to him, looked at his recommendations and said they don't think much of them.

With one week of the special session already gone, there's a good chance it will fold up altogether by next Saturday and go home.

At least that's what Senator Taft of Ohio, Republican leader in the Senate, says.

Angered by the Republicans' week-long coolness to his warnings of trouble ahead unless something is done quickly about inflation, Mr. Truman yesterday accused Congress of "blind disregard of the dangers that beset our path."

To that Senator Taft replied that Mr. Truman is "making political speeches" and actually "doesn't want to stop inflation."

Mr. Truman said a "business collapse," a "depression," may result if his recommendations aren't followed.

He said that yesterday in a report—based on the findings of his economic advisors—which he sent to Congress.

But Senator Taft came right back by saying the report makes it "very difficult to see any emergency that would require calling a special session."

The senator did say he hopes Congress will do something about the price question.

But at this point it's hard to see how Congress can do much about it because

1. The Senate is tied in knots now by a filibuster of the southern Democrats against an anti-poll tax bill. True, Senator Taft says he hopes this filibuster will be over by next Wednesday.

2. But, if Congress adjourns by next Saturday, that leaves only Thursday, Friday and Saturday to act on prices.

On top of all this a couple of Democrats—Reps. Monroney of Oklahoma and Boggs of Louisiana—made in, effect, this suggestion to the Republicans:

"If you don't like Mr. Truman's proposals, then why don't you Republicans set up some program of your own to stop inflation?"

Time alone will give you the answer on whether Mr. Truman or the Republicans the right.

BOARD IS NAMED

WILMINGTON—Members of the new zoning board have been appointed by Mayor Robert C. Stephens. They are Harley Day, Mrs. William Beckett, Donald Cowgill and Karl Kerr.

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2—(AP)—Boom or bust?

You'll find out. But you'll have to stick around for the answer. How long? Maybe months. Maybe years.

There seems to be a little divided opinion on the subject.

Here, after a week of the special session of Congress, you're no nearer an answer than you were before President Truman called the session.

Mr. Truman, full of gloom and worry about the future, warns the Republicans who control Congress they'd better do something about inflation.

But the Republicans shrug him off and say he's playing politics in this election year.

So how can you—since you're no expert in economics but just an average American hoping everything will come out all right—know the answer to this one:

We're in a boom time now with the greatest number of people ever employed in American history. So—

Will the boom end, sooner or later, in a sickening, soul-shattering bust? Or will this country straighten out, with inflation gradually subsiding and leveling off on a long, smooth tide of prosperity?

Before the special session started Monday, it was pretty clear that the Republicans were in no mood to pay attention to Mr. Truman or his warnings.

They listened to him, looked at his recommendations and said they don't think much of them.

With one week of the special session already gone, there's a good chance it will fold up altogether by next Saturday and go home.

At least that's what Senator Taft of Ohio, Republican leader in the Senate, says.

Angered by the Republicans' week-long coolness to his warnings of trouble ahead unless something is done quickly about inflation, Mr. Truman yesterday accused Congress of "blind disregard of the dangers that beset our path."

To that Senator Taft replied that Mr. Truman is "making political speeches" and actually "doesn't want to stop inflation."

Mr. Truman said a "business collapse," a "depression," may result if his recommendations aren't followed.

He said that yesterday in a report—based on the findings of his economic advisors—which he sent to Congress.

But Senator Taft came right back by saying the report makes it "very difficult to see any emergency that would require calling a special session."

The senator did say he hopes Congress will do something about the price question.

But at this point it's hard to see how Congress can do much about it because

1. The Senate is tied in knots now by a filibuster of the southern Democrats against an anti-poll tax bill. True, Senator Taft says he hopes this filibuster will be over by next Wednesday.

2. But, if Congress adjourns by next Saturday, that leaves only Thursday, Friday and Saturday to act on prices.

On top of all this a couple of Democrats—Reps. Monroney of Oklahoma and Boggs of Louisiana—made in, effect, this suggestion to the Republicans:

"If you don't like Mr. Truman's proposals, then why don't you Republicans set up some program of your own to stop inflation?"

Time alone will give you the answer on whether Mr. Truman or the Republicans the right.

BOARD IS NAMED

WILMINGTON—Members of the new zoning board have been appointed by Mayor Robert C. Stephens. They are Harley Day, Mrs. William Beckett, Donald Cowgill and Karl Kerr.

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2—(AP)—Boom or bust?

You'll find out. But you'll have to stick around for the answer. How long? Maybe months. Maybe years.

There seems to be a little divided opinion on the subject.

Here, after a week of the special session of Congress, you're no nearer an answer than you were before President Truman called the session.

Mr. Truman, full of gloom and worry about the future, warns the Republicans who control Congress they'd better do something about inflation.

But the Republicans shrug him off and say he's playing politics in this election year.

So how can you—since you're no expert in economics but just an average American hoping everything will come out all right—know the answer to this one:

We're in a boom time now with the greatest number of people ever employed in American history. So—

Will the boom end, sooner or later, in a sickening, soul-shattering bust? Or will this country straighten out, with inflation gradually subsiding and leveling off on a long, smooth tide of prosperity?

Before the special session started Monday, it was pretty clear that the Republicans were in no mood to pay attention to Mr. Truman or his warnings.

They listened to him, looked at his recommendations and said they don't think much of them.

With one week of the special session already gone, there's a good chance it will fold up altogether by next Saturday and go home.

At least that's what Senator Taft of Ohio, Republican leader in the Senate, says.

Angered by the Republicans' week-long coolness to his warnings of trouble ahead unless something is done quickly about inflation, Mr. Truman yesterday accused Congress of "blind disregard of the dangers that beset our path."

To that Senator Taft replied that Mr. Truman is "making political speeches" and actually "doesn't want to stop inflation."

Mr. Truman said a "business collapse," a "depression," may result if his recommendations aren't followed.

He said that yesterday in a report—based on the findings of his economic advisors—which he sent to Congress.

But Senator Taft came right back by saying the report makes it "very difficult to see any emergency that would require calling a special session."

The senator did say he hopes Congress will do something about the price question.

But at this point it's hard to see how Congress can do much about it because

1. The Senate is tied in knots now by a filibuster of the southern Democrats against an anti-poll tax bill. True, Senator Taft says he hopes this filibuster will be over by next Wednesday.

2. But, if Congress adjourns by next Saturday, that leaves only Thursday, Friday and Saturday to act on prices.

On top of all this a couple of Democrats—Reps. Monroney of Oklahoma and Boggs of Louisiana—made in, effect, this suggestion to the Republicans:

"If you don't like Mr. Truman's proposals, then why don't you Republicans set up some program of your own to stop inflation?"

Time alone will give you the answer on whether Mr. Truman or the Republicans the right.

BOARD IS NAMED

WILMINGTON—Members of the new zoning board have been appointed by Mayor Robert C. Stephens. They are Harley Day, Mrs. William Beckett, Donald Cowgill and Karl Kerr.

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2—(AP)—Boom or bust?

You'll find out. But you'll have to stick around for the answer. How long? Maybe months. Maybe years.

There seems to be a little divided opinion on the subject.

Here, after a week of the special session of Congress, you're no nearer an answer than you were before President Truman called the session.

Mr. Truman, full of gloom and worry about the future, warns the Republicans who control Congress they'd better do something about inflation.

But the Republicans shrug him off and say he's playing politics in this election year.

So how can you—since you're no

Community Foundation Plan Needs Pushing

Quite a number of Fayette County people who have expressed interest in the organization of the proposed Fayette County Hospital and Community Foundation, keep asking what has happened that it has not been completed.

This idea of a foundation fund for the hospital and other important community projects, has many possibilities. The longer it waits the more such a fund will lose from possible donors and from bequests in wills.

While it is recognized that it usually requires a long time to work out such projects, the one started here has gone through the careful analysis of the Fayette County Bar Association and a constitution and by-laws has been drawn up. All that is needed now to carry the plan to its next organization step is a meeting of the original sponsors who are to approve or suggest changes in the plan, and then proceed with the necessary incorporation.

There are reported to have been quite a number of individuals who have made wills here during the past few years who would have welcomed an opportunity to leave a sum of money or other property to such a fund for use, under guidance of the right type of trustees, toward worthwhile projects of a community nature for the benefit of the public.

Let's all hope that before the summer is over action will be taken by those who are now assigned the responsibility, to put this foundation movement on its way toward final organization and a start toward the purpose for which it has been conceived.

An Equally Serious Threat

Much hullabaloo is going on these days about the Communist menace in this country. That it is a menace, we do not deny.

Nevertheless, we must not forget for one moment that there is another and far more dangerous threat facing our American way of life. Surprisingly enough, this danger stems not from these card-holding members of the Communist party, but from the thousands of otherwise patriotic citizens whose thinking has been warped and distorted by the smooth-sounding left-wing propaganda which has been, and is flooding the country.

These confused Americans are the first to deny that their aims are identical with those of the Moscow-directed agents in this country. But as "dupes" of this same philosophy, they have become convinced that the free enterprise system which has made us the most envied country in the history of the world is now done for and must be abandoned. They offer us a program of planned socialism which, when carried out to its end, leaves only a police state—a dictatorship.

We need only to look at what's happened to other nations which have turned to a socialistic form of government for our answer. Individual opportunity and initiative withered and died. The "common man"—for whom these advocates of a planned economy promise great things—became a mere cog in a bureaucratic machine, subject to the whims and decisions of a regimented autocracy. No longer could he determine what kind of a job he could get or where he would work or any of the other things which we in America take for granted as constituting his rights and privileges as a citizen.

So, don't be misguided by labels. Communism happens to be a serious problem now, but Americans want no part of a "police state" program, whatever it may be labelled.

Television poses a hard question for the candidates. Will they lose more votes by getting "shot" without makeup, or by having their pictures taken while being made up?

Several aircraft pilots have been fined lately for low flying or "buzzing" over populated areas. The customary fine seems to be $50, which is lower than the flying.

Laff-A-Day

8-2 COPY FOR KING FEATURES SYNDICATE, INC. WORLD RIGHTS RESERVED.

Diet and Health

B. HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M.D.

THUMB-SUCKING is certainly not a habit to be encouraged, but neither is it so serious as to merit the heroic measures some parents use to prevent it.

The teeth of a child who sucks his thumb may grow in crooked, but otherwise thumb-sucking does not seem to be a harmful practice. Furthermore, once the pressure on the teeth from the thumb-sucking no longer exists, they readily go back to normal position.

Popular Belief

Contrary to popular belief, thumb-sucking neither deforms the roof of the mouth, nor produces infections of the mouth or digestive upsets. Hence, if the habit cannot be broken by gentle means, doctors today believe it is better to let it go on until the child outgrows it than to shake his faith in himself by nagging and shaming him.

Thumb-sucking usually starts during the early months of life, particularly during the teething period. It often occurs just before the child falls asleep. If it persists after the baby is a year old, it is likely to continue until the youngster is between two and five years of age, and it is not unusual for it to persist into adult life.

Frequently while the baby is sucking his thumb, he is pulling at his ear, patting his head, or sucking on his blanket. These things may persist after the thumb-sucking has stopped. Occasionally, the baby may suck fingers other than the thumb. Now and then, when thumb-sucking is prevented by restraint, the child may develop the habit of tongue-sucking. This habit usually disappears during the second year of life.

Mechanical Devices

In treating thumb-sucking, mechanical restraining devices to keep the baby from getting his finger into his mouth are not advised. Furthermore, putting bitter-tasting substances on the thumb is not a good thing to do. These things only seem to make the child more resistant to overcoming the habit and, as I said earlier, shaming or nagging is also to be avoided. During infancy, the habit needs no treatment.

It has been suggested by some that giving the child a pacifier will get rid of the thumb-sucking habit. Then later on, toward the end of the second year, the pacifier can be taken away. However, many do not believe this is a good idea.

Underlying Cause

If the thumb-sucking continues after the first year of life, the underlying cause may be due to such things as over-fatigue, boredom, or nervousness. Seeing to it that the child gets plenty of rest and ample opportunity to play will bring good results.

In older children, the promise of a reward and appeals to the child's vanity or will-power may be of help. Sometimes, having the child wear a glove as a reminder about overcoming the habit will be useful. In any event, parents should not be greatly concerned about the thumb-sucking habit.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

N. B.: Will you please tell me something about sciatica, its treatment and cure?

Answer: The treatment of sciatica consists in the removal of the cause which frequently may be found in a focus of infection in the teeth, tonsils, nasal sinuses, or somewhere else in the body. Sometimes the cause is a disturbance of the spine; an X-ray would determine this.

Rest in bed, massage, the use of diathermy and sometimes drugs, such as salicylates, is helpful.

Krupp Officials Are Found Guilty Of War Crimes

NUERNBERG, Germany, Aug. 2.—(P)—A U. S. military court today convicted Alfred Krupp Von Bohlen Und Halbach and 10 other directors of the Krupp munitions works on two war crimes counts—exploitation of slave labor and plundering of occupied countries.

A 50,000-word judgement said the directors of the Ruhr gun plant, backbone of the German war machine since the days of Bismarck, committed crimes even in excess of Hitler's orders.

Of the 12 defendants, only Karl Heinrich Pfirsch, 71, dean of the board and a gun industrialist since 1901, was acquitted on all counts. The judgement was handed down by a tribunal consisting of H. C. Anderson of Jackson, Tenn. Edward J. Daly of Hartford, Conn. and William J. Wilkin of Seattle, Wash.

Krupp, 41, took over the billion-dollar enterprise from his father, ailing Gustav Krupp and his mother, Bertha, for whom the "Big Bertha" guns of World War I were named. He was convicted of exploiting slave labor, starving and mistreating concentration camp workers and using prisoners of war to make German guns.

Railroad Unions To Test Injunction

CLEVELAND, Aug. 2.—(P)—Three railroad brotherhoods want the U. S. Supreme Court to decide whether an injunction restraining them from striking is legal.

Alvanley Johnston, grand chief engineer of the brotherhood of locomotive engineers; David B. Robertson, president of the brotherhood of locomotive firemen and engineers; and Arthur J. Glover, president of the Switchmen's Union of North America, yesterday announced plans for a supreme court test of the injunction.

Federal Judge Alan T. Goldsborough on May 10 issued an order restraining the three brotherhoods from striking May 11 in an attempt to win wage increases and working rule changes.

Flood Check Made In Hocking Valley

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—(P)—Rep. Brehm (R-Ohio) said today Republican leaders in Congress have assured him "full cooperation" on legislation authorizing a flood control study on the Hocking River and tributaries in Ohio.

A section on the Hocking around Lancaster was the scene of a sudden flood July 21 and 22. Brehm said the damage was estimated in the millions.

UNDERSTANDING SYMPATHY SERVICE

We are equipped to serve all nationalities and creeds efficiently.

KLEVER FUNERAL HOME
Stanley Chitty Ambrose Elliott
Washington C. H., Ohio Phone 5671

Taking Too Big A Bite?

Out of your income because of unexpected obligations? Don't let sudden debts upset you financially. See us for a low cost personal loan—quickly, confidentially arranged. Come in today.

IT'S EASY TO BORROW . . .

IT'S EASY TO PAY AT —

120 North
Fayette St.

American Loan
AND FINANCE CO.

Phone
22214

Fayette County Years Ago

Five Years Ago

OPA has announced that ceiling prices will be checked in the food stores in Washington C. H.

Miss Mary Elizabeth Brownling is named vocal music supervisor in the Washington C. H. schools.

Five hundred people are needed to work in canneries throughout the state, the employment office announced today.

Ten Years Ago

Lighting system here part of building plan for Fayette County Fair. Horse show and other night features given prominent role. Pari-mutuel betting may be adopted.

Federal route over Market Street is recommendation of J. W. Hawkshaw, Rotary Club speaker.

Three counties to join in celebration at Sawyer rally at Washington.

Fifteen Years Ago

Council adopts an ordinance to turn on all street lights in 30 days. Only half of lights have been burned past few months.

Sixty city business firms join NRA.

Dome of cistern under Court-Fayette Street intersection found to be cracked.

Twenty Years Ago

Myers Y. Cooper, candidate for governor, speaks at YMCA here.

County commissioners award contract for new bridge over Sergeant's Run on the Hess Road to the Champion Bridge Company.

Horse's kick is fatal to Charles Cartwright, 8-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Cary Cartwright.

Twenty-five Years Ago

Robert Edge prepares to remove old frame buildings on side next to Main Street for new buildings to be occupied by J. C. Penney Co.

Fire Chief Leach and fireman Emil Wilson install device for ringing fire bell automatically.

Grab Bag

The Answer, Quick

1. If Thomas E. Dewey is elected in November, he will be the fifth governor of New York to become president: can you name the others?
2. When and from whom did retired champion heavyweight fighter Joe Louis win his title?
3. All the rivers of the state of Arizona run directly or indirectly into what river?
4. What state of the Union was the home of the pirate Jean Lafitte?
5. In what harbor is Fort Sumter?

Modern Manners

If you attend a party with an escort who does not know any of the other guests, and if the hostess does not know him, introduce him to her and she will present him to the other guests.

Your Future

Friends can be helpful to you at this time in both business and social matters. Creative work is favored. In your next 12 months you may be much interested in love, domestic and social activities, which are well signified. Don't let any fancied deception spoil your happiness.

How'd You Make Out?

1. Martin Van Buren, Grover Cleveland and the two Roosevelts—Theodore and F. D. R.
2. June, 1937, from James I. Braddock.
3. The Colorado.
4. Louisiana.
5. Charleston, S. C.

Postal Clerk Held

YOUNGSTOWN, Aug. 2.—(P)—Stephen M. Kalna, 24-year-old substitute postal clerk, has been bound over to federal district court in Cleveland on a charge of taking money from the mails.

Child's Fall Fatal

CLEVELAND, Aug. 2.—(P)—William Moran, one-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. William T. Moran, was injured fatally yesterday in a fall through a window. He had been playing in his crib, Mrs. Moran said.

READ THE CLASSIFIED ADS

Life on the Graveyard Shift

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK. —(P)—The city is a vast artificial heart that throbs in tempo to the pattern of normal daily life.

But many who live within it have to break that pattern to keep the city going. They are the army of night workers who must clean that gigantic heart, guard it, and refuel it, for the strains of the next day.

The job turns a man into an owl, but no one can know some of the strange corners of life unless he has served his time at night work.

In newspaper work this assignment is known as "the graveyard shift," and it is aptly named. There is a mystic affinity between night and death.

For three years before the war I worked with one of these "skeleton crews" of newsmen, who feel and record the pulse of the sleeping city between midnight and 8 o'clock in the morning.

One of the joys of newspaper life is supposed to be that you meet "such interesting people."

Guru Letters, Ugly But True

By George E. Sokolsky

You can say that the Guru letters are unimportant and that Westbrook Pegler has made much of an imbecility. For months I have heard people say that they are tired of reading about the Guru in Pegler's column and that he ought to put on a new record.

Well, that is a matter of taste, and my taste runs to telling the truth even if it is ugly and tiresome. After all, a column is not entertainment, like writing about who wants to divorce whom with the object of marrying some other whom. That stuff can be got from the press agents of the notorious. Most reporters and columnists undertake tough and often grueling assignments to get the facts to their readers, which they cannot always do because skillful politicians and lawyers have discovered ways to keeping the truth undercover.

The Record-Herald

A daily newspaper consolidating the Washington C. H. Herald and The Record-Republican

W. J. Galvin President
F. F. Tipton General Manager
P. F. Roderfeld Business Manager
Entered as second class matter at the Washington C. H. post office.
Published every afternoon except Sunday at the Record-Herald Building, 135-140 South Fayette Street, Washington C. H., Ohio.

SUBSCRIPTION TERMS
By carrier in Washington C. H. 25c per week. By mail in Washington C. H. Trading Area $6 per year; elsewhere in Ohio $7 per year. Outside Ohio $8 per year. Single copy 5c.
TELEPHONE: 22121—News 9701—Society 2221—Display Advertising 2274.

Hardwood Lumber!

Farm Lumber A Specialty

1x6 Fencing Planks

Corn Crib

Feed Racks — Hog Boxes

Wickline and Halliday

Phone 34774

1/2 Mile South on Route 35
Evenings: Phone 41001

STATEWIDE: One of the nice things about using our money service is that wherever you are in Ohio, there's always a City Loan office nearby in almost every city and county. Use your finance credit here so you can come and go as you please.

Paul Van Voorhis, Mgr.

The

CITY LOAN

& SAVINGS CO.

141 E. Court Phone 2542

PUBLIC SALE OF 60.04 ACRES OF LAND

About one mile south of Washington C. H., Ohio, on State Route No. 70

In pursuance of the terms and provisions and by the authority of the Last Will and Testament of Clara Snider Reed, deceased, the undersigned executor will offer for sale at public auction on Thursday, August 5th, 1948

at 2:00 o'clock P. M., at the door of the Court House in Washington C. H., Ohio, the following described real estate situate in the County of Fayette and the State of Ohio. An exceptionally well located tract of 60.04 acres of land, being part of what is known as the Clara Snider Reed Farm, lying on the westerly side of State Route 70. Excellent farm land. It can be divided to advantage into small Suburban Farms, if desired.

Terms of Sale: 10 percent of the purchase price cash in hand on day of sale, and the balance of the purchase price in full upon execution and delivery of deed.

TROY T. JUNK

Executor of the Estate of Clara Snider Reed, Deceased

Jess Schlichter, Auctioneer

Junk and Junk, Attorneys

Almost One Hundred Attend Annual Todhunter Reunion

Almost one hundred descendants of the families of Amos, Abner, Alfred and John Todhunter, assembled at the Cherry Hill School grounds on Sunday, August 1 for the 22nd annual reunion.

A sumptuous meal was enjoyed at the noon hour in shade of the beautiful trees on the grounds, and was served at several long tables. The president, Mr. James Irvin, conducted a brief business meeting during which new officers were chosen for the coming year, and resulted in Mrs. Ralph Nisley being elected president, Mrs. Clayton Irvin, first vice president, Mrs. Charles Todhunter, second vice president, Mrs. Henrietta Ellis, secretary-treasurer and Mrs. E. F. Todhunter, historian. It was decided to hold the next reunion at Cherry Hill on July 10, 1949.

Mrs. William Todhunter, who was born in Keswick, England, gave an extremely interesting and informative talk on her native country, saying that first members of the Todhunter came to America in 1687 from Cumberland County, England. Members from out of town attending were, Mrs. W. E. Coons, of Ponca City, Oklahoma, Mr. and Mrs. Selsor Fenner, daughter, Lynn, of Melbourne, Florida, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Cockerill, children, Howard, Jr., and Billie Sue, of Huntington, West Virginia, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Overturf, children, David Dale and Martha June of Dinkirk, New York, Miss Pat Flynn, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Staats, daughter, Marcia, Mrs. Dorothy Fletcher and Mr. and Mrs. William Staats of Mt. Vernon, Mr. and Mrs. John Burdall, daughter, Carol, of Middletown, Mr. and Mrs. Beryl Ellis, of Springfield, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Minton, daughter, Lynn, Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Minton, daughter, Marilyn, of Wilmington, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Irvin, and Mr. George Smith of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Cockerill, Mr. and Mrs. James E. Irvin, Mr. Chester Zimmerman, Mrs. Henry Todhunter, Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Ellis, Mrs. Henrietta Ellis, Mr. Howard Ellis, Mr. Rex Todhunter and Miss Mazie Priddy of Greenfield, Mr. and Mrs. James Fite of Buford, Miss Juanita DeWees, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Todhunter and Dr. and Mrs. Fred Finke and son, Rick, of Columbus.

Boylan Family Holds Reunion On Sunday

The Boylan reunion was held Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Teevens. Bountiful baskets of food were arranged on the dining room table, and the guests were seated informally at card tables. Those present at the annual event were:

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. McNulty, daughter Ann and son Walter, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. McNulty and son Michael, Mr. and Mrs. Casper Shaffer and son Casper, Jr., of Springfield; Mr. and Mrs. C. F. McFadden and daughter Margaret, and Mr. and Mrs. Roy L. Wilson, of Dayton; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Rader and children Sandra, Jimmy and Ronnie, and Miss Lorane Kruse, of Columbus; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Boylan and son Jim, and Miss Helen Owen, of Delaware; Mr. and Mrs. Terrence Kerrigan, son Tom, and grandson, John Kerrigan of Sidney; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. K. Thompson and son, Bob, of Greenfield; Mr. and Mrs. Gordon E. Davis, of Bloomingburg; Miss Marie Zimmerman, of Cincinnati; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Boylan, and sons John and Billie, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Boylan, sons Charles and Jim and daughter, Jean Ann, Mrs. Homer Ruley, George Beaver, Bob Hyer, Mr. John Meyers, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. A. Boylan and children, Jack, Jeri, Michael and Judy, all of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Teevens were assisted during the afternoon and evening by their daughter, Miss Lillian Teevens.

BUCKEYE CHAPTER OF THE WLW MAIL BAG CLUB will meet with Mr. and Mrs. Donald Meredith of New Holland, covered dish dinner for members and families, 7:30 P. M.

Regular fortnightly luncheon bridge at the Washington Country Club, 1 P. M. Mrs. Wash Lough, Mrs. Hugh B. Sollars, Mrs. Charles Reinke, Mrs. Albert Peterson, Mrs. Edgar Snyder and Mrs. Otis Core will be hostesses.

Mt. Olive W. S. C. S. annual picnic at the home of Mrs. Glen Davis 7 P. M.

FRIDAY, Aug. 6
New Martinsburg WCTU will meet with Mrs. George Anderson 2 P. M.
Olla Podrida Club will meet with Mrs. Ray Larrimer, 2 P. M.

Good Hope Methodist Church annual picnic will be held at Peterson's Park 6:30 P. M.

BUCKEYE CHAPTER OF THE WLW MAIL BAG CLUB will meet with Mr. and Mrs. Donald Meredith of New Holland, covered dish dinner for members and families, 7:30 P. M.

Regular fortnightly luncheon bridge at the Washington Country Club, 1 P. M. Mrs. Wash Lough, Mrs. Hugh B. Sollars, Mrs. Charles Reinke, Mrs. Albert Peterson, Mrs. Edgar Snyder and Mrs. Otis Core will be hostesses.

Mt. Olive W. S. C. S. annual picnic at the home of Mrs. Glen Davis 7 P. M.

FRIDAY, Aug. 6
New Martinsburg WCTU will meet with Mrs. George Anderson 2 P. M.
Olla Podrida Club will meet with Mrs. Ray Larrimer, 2 P. M.

Good Hope Methodist Church annual picnic will be held at Peterson's Park 6:30 P. M.

BUCKEYE CHAPTER OF THE WLW MAIL BAG CLUB will meet with Mr. and Mrs. Donald Meredith of New Holland, covered dish dinner for members and families, 7:30 P. M.

Regular fortnightly luncheon bridge at the Washington Country Club, 1 P. M. Mrs. Wash Lough, Mrs. Hugh B. Sollars, Mrs. Charles Reinke, Mrs. Albert Peterson, Mrs. Edgar Snyder and Mrs. Otis Core will be hostesses.

Mt. Olive W. S. C. S. annual picnic at the home of Mrs. Glen Davis 7 P. M.

FRIDAY, Aug. 6
New Martinsburg WCTU will meet with Mrs. George Anderson 2 P. M.
Olla Podrida Club will meet with Mrs. Ray Larrimer, 2 P. M.

Good Hope Methodist Church annual picnic will be held at Peterson's Park 6:30 P. M.

Stuncheon Bridge And Shower Honors Bride-Elect

Miss Wilma Noble, of Bloomingburg who will become the bride of Mr. William Yardley, on Wednesday, August 4, was the guest of honor when Mrs. Donald E. Mossbarger, entertained on Saturday, at her home in Bloomingburg, with a one o'clock luncheon bridge and a miscellaneous shower.

The home throughout was festive with elaborate decorations of summer flowers and the small tables seating the guests for the tempting two course repast, had smaller arrangements of flowers, as their centerpieces.

Following the congenial luncheon hour, Miss Noble opened the beautiful array of gifts at the dining room table also centered with a beautiful water garden centered with a clever figurine surrounded with pastel flowers.

Each gift was graciously responded to and the remainder of the pleasant afternoon was spent in the several progressions of the spirited game which was concluded with the awarding of attractive prizes to Mrs. Walter P. Noble, who was the winner of the high score trophy and Mrs. Madison Swope who received second.

Guests included were: Mrs. W. P. Noble, Mrs. Madison Swope, Mrs. Howard Foster, Mrs. Edgar McFadden, Mrs. Loren Noble, Mrs. Willard Perrill, Miss Ruth Ann Perrill, of Bloomingburg, Mrs. Ray Brandenburg, Mrs. William McCoy, of this city, Mrs. Charles A. McCoy of Baton Rouge, Louisiana, Mrs. Robert Connor, of Dayton, Mrs. W. B. Yardley, and Mrs. C. W. Yardley of Columbus, Mrs. Harry Curtis, of New Vienna, and Mrs. Lee Mossbarger of New Holland.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Palmer, Mr. T. Martin and daughters Vera and Mary of Newark were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Morgan and family, near Milledgeville.

Miss Ethel Wead of Xenia is spending a few days here as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gage.

Misses Joan and Ann Hagerty of Lakewood, are guests this week of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Hagerty.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Terhune, Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Woodyard, and Mr. and Mrs. Don Scholl returned Saturday evening from New York City where they were guests at the Governor Clinton Hotel while attending the Lions International, during the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Mac Iver have returned from a two weeks vacation spent at Wasaga Beach, on Georgian Bay, Ontario, Canada. They also visited Niagara.

Mr. and Mrs. Teevens were assisted during the afternoon and evening by their daughter, Miss Lillian Teevens.

BUCKEYE CHAPTER OF THE WLW MAIL BAG CLUB will meet with Mr. and Mrs. Donald Meredith of New Holland, covered dish dinner for members and families, 7:30 P. M.

Regular fortnightly luncheon bridge at the Washington Country Club, 1 P. M. Mrs. Wash Lough, Mrs. Hugh B. Sollars, Mrs. Charles Reinke, Mrs. Albert Peterson, Mrs. Edgar Snyder and Mrs. Otis Core will be hostesses.

Mt. Olive W. S. C. S. annual picnic at the home of Mrs. Glen Davis 7 P. M.

FRIDAY, Aug. 6
New Martinsburg WCTU will meet with Mrs. George Anderson 2 P. M.
Olla Podrida Club will meet with Mrs. Ray Larrimer, 2 P. M.

Good Hope Methodist Church annual picnic will be held at Peterson's Park 6:30 P. M.

BUCKEYE CHAPTER OF THE WLW MAIL BAG CLUB will meet with Mr. and Mrs. Donald Meredith of New Holland, covered dish dinner for members and families, 7:30 P. M.

Regular fortnightly luncheon bridge at the Washington Country Club, 1 P. M. Mrs. Wash Lough, Mrs. Hugh B. Sollars, Mrs. Charles Reinke, Mrs. Albert Peterson, Mrs. Edgar Snyder and Mrs. Otis Core will be hostesses.

Mt. Olive W. S. C. S. annual picnic at the home of Mrs. Glen Davis 7 P. M.

FRIDAY, Aug. 6
New Martinsburg WCTU will meet with Mrs. George Anderson 2 P. M.
Olla Podrida Club will meet with Mrs. Ray Larrimer, 2 P. M.

Good Hope Methodist Church annual picnic will be held at Peterson's Park 6:30 P. M.

BUCKEYE CHAPTER OF THE WLW MAIL BAG CLUB will meet with Mr. and Mrs. Donald Meredith of New Holland, covered dish dinner for members and families, 7:30 P. M.

Regular fortnightly luncheon bridge at the Washington Country Club, 1 P. M. Mrs. Wash Lough, Mrs. Hugh B. Sollars, Mrs. Charles Reinke, Mrs. Albert Peterson, Mrs. Edgar Snyder and Mrs. Otis Core will be hostesses.

Mt. Olive W. S. C. S. annual picnic at the home of Mrs. Glen Davis 7 P. M.

FRIDAY, Aug. 6
New Martinsburg WCTU will meet with Mrs. George Anderson 2 P. M.
Olla Podrida Club will meet with Mrs. Ray Larrimer, 2 P. M.

Good Hope Methodist Church annual picnic will be held at Peterson's Park 6:30 P. M.

BUCKEYE CHAPTER OF THE WLW MAIL BAG CLUB will meet with Mr. and Mrs. Donald Meredith of New Holland, covered dish dinner for members and families, 7:30 P. M.

Regular fortnightly luncheon bridge at the Washington Country Club, 1 P. M. Mrs. Wash Lough, Mrs. Hugh B. Sollars, Mrs. Charles Reinke, Mrs. Albert Peterson, Mrs. Edgar Snyder and Mrs. Otis Core will be hostesses.

Social Events

Falls and other points of interest enroute.

Mrs. Hazel K. Devins, returned Monday from Lakewood, where she was joined by her son Mr. Bruce Devins of Detroit, Michigan, for a week end visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Fisher.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Cockerill motored to Columbus Friday afternoon to bring their daughter Marjorie Lee, home, and were accompanied by Mrs. Dorothy Bintermire and Miss Jane Beck, who were their guests to attend the Fayette County Fair on Saturday. They returned to their home on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Larrimer of Bloomingburg, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Forman and Mr. and Mrs. William Crockett at their homes in Springfield.

Mrs. A. S. Stemler has as her guests for a few days visit, Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Frazier, sons Jimmie, and Johnny, and daughter Joanne, of West Palm Beach, Florida. The Frazier's will also visit with Mr. and Mrs. Loren Hynes, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Terhune and their families.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Theobald and children of Dayton have returned to their home in Dayton after a week end spent with Mrs. Theobald's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Garringer.

Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Whitfield have as their house guests, Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Myers of Detroit, Michigan.

Danny and Sydney Terhune are spending two weeks at Camp Campbell Gard, Hamilton.

Dr. and Mrs. Marvin H. Roszmann, children Tommy, Henry and Marjorie, returned Saturday evening from a two weeks' vacation spent at Mitwanga Beach on Lake Erie.

Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Rhoad and family, of Hilliards, were Sunday guests of Mrs. Rhoad's parents Mr. and Mrs. Beryl Cavine.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Anderson and son, Jimmie, joined Mr. and Mrs. D. Loel and a party of other friends from Chillicothe on Sunday for a week's outing on Indian Lake where they are all guests at the Beatty Hotel.

Miss Barbara Cowe returned to her home in Grosse Pointe, Michigan, Sunday evening after a week end spent here as the guest of Miss Suzanne Willis.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Draiz were in Columbus Sunday where they were guests at a family dinner given by Mrs. C. W. Andrews and her mother Mrs. A. R. Stokesbury, honoring Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth G. Holcombe, son Jerry of San Francisco, California and Mr. and Mrs. Haines Reichel of Pittsburg, Mass., Mrs. Holcombe is the former Virginia Harvey, and Mrs. Reichel the former, Elinor Harvey. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lockwood, and Mrs. J. W. Race of Chillicothe were additional guests.

Mrs. Herbert Fite and Mrs. Lou Scott had as their week end guests Mr. and Mrs. James Fite of Buford.

Mr. and Mrs. John Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Kennell, Mrs. Charles Duff, Mrs. J. W. Allemand of Bloomingburg and Dr. and Mrs. A. D. Blackburn of Circleville attended the Knotts family reunion held at Griggs Dam near Columbus Sunday.

Mrs. Robert Whitfield was the Saturday guest of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Ashley and their infant son, William Anderson Ashley II, at their home in Dayton.

Miss Wilma Kern returned Saturday from a two weeks' visit in Portsmouth where she was the guest of Miss Marjorie Leach and Miss Allene McKean.

Little Miss Sara Ann Terhune is spending a month in Liberty Center, Indiana, as the guest of her grandmother, Mrs. O. W. Terhune.

Miss Lillian teeveens left Monday morning for Los Angeles, Calif., where she will establish residence prior to her marriage to Mr. William Klem, who is attending the University of California, where he is majoring in ceramics.

Miss Marie Zimmerman, of Cincinnati, and Miss Lorane

POISON IVY OAK OF SUMAC

Science has discovered an excellent new treatment for ivy, oak and sumac poisoning. It's gentle and safe, dries up the blisters in a surprisingly short time, often within 24 hours. At drugists, 59c

Ask for IVY-DRY

Swimming Party And Picnic Given By Waddells

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Waddell, sons Dean Jr. and George, of Greenfield entertained with a swimming party and a picnic on Sunday at their beautiful summer home at Beech Cliff, near Bainbridge. The guest list was made up of their intimate friends here and also included a few out of town guests. Those enjoying the delightful event were, Mr. and Mrs. Vivian Crawford, Mr. and Mrs. Belford Carpenter, Mr. and Mrs. Max Thomas, daughter, Melba, Mr. and Mrs. J. Earl Gidding, daughter Carol Ann, son Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Maynard, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Story, Kruse of Columbus, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. A. Boylan and family Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Thoroman, daughter Elizabeth were guests of relatives in Peebles, and Manchester Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Crampton had as Sunday dinner guests Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wiggins of Circleville, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Pummell, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Clark of near Hillsboro, Mrs. Nina Gormley of Greenfield, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Verne Clark, and Mrs. Thomas Monjar of Springfield and Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Moyer of this city.

Mrs. Mabel Vincent of Columbus returned to her home Sunday after several days visit with Mr. and Mrs. Forest F. Tipton.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Magley and daughter Linda who were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Magley and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Turner here over the weekend left early Monday on a motoring trip through the Great Smoky Mountain National Park

Suits Plain Dresses Coats
Cleaned & Pressed
89c each
Free Pickup & Delivery Service
Model Cleaners
R. L. Pressler, Mgr.
Phone 34691

The Record-Herald, Monday, August 2, 1948
Washington C. H., Ohio

Sabina

Advisory Council
Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wilson were hosts for the meeting of Advisory Council 14 Tuesday evening. Frank Pavey was discussion leader, the topic being the prospective tour of members of the Farm Bureau to Ohio State University

During the social hour, the hostess served delicious refreshments to one guest, Mrs. Mahala Richards, and members, Mr. and Mrs. Pavey, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Snider, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Waddell and son, William Waddell, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Case, Mrs. A. N. Simmons and Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Van Pelt and daughters.

Jade colors vary from deep green or black to pure milk white or cream tinted, with rare finds of yellow, mauve, and mottled.

READ THE CLASSIFIED ADS

IT'S ASPIRIN AT ITS BEST
St. Joseph ASPIRIN
WORLD'S LARGEST SELLER AT 10c

Help relieve distress of MONTHLY FEMALE COMPLAINTS

Are you troubled by distress of female functional periodic disturbances? Does this make you suffer from pain, feel so nervous, tired—at such times? Then try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to relieve such symptoms. Pinkham's has a grand soothing effect on one of woman's most important organs! LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S COMPOUND

THE BEST BUY
HALF-POUND ECONOMY SIZE ONLY.... 39c

Mr. and Mrs. Hall Are Honor Guests At Dinner Bridge
Mr. and Mrs. Charles McCoy were host and hostess to a group of friends Saturday evening at their home when they entertained with a beautifully appointed dinner bridge in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Hall, of Baton Rouge, Louisiana.

The tempting two course meal was served at one long table softly lighted with white tapers in crystal candelabra, and the group lingered for a congenial hour of visiting before making up the informal game of bridge which was enjoyed the remainder of the evening.

In addition to the honor guests those included were Dr. and Mrs. Joseph M. Herbert, Mr. and Mrs. Neil Helfrich, Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Marting, Mr. and Mrs. William McCoy, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sanderson of this city and Dr. and Mrs. Donald E. Mossbarger of Bloomingburg.

Help relieve distress of MONTHLY FEMALE COMPLAINTS

Are you troubled by distress of female functional periodic disturbances? Does this make you suffer from pain, feel so nervous, tired—at such times? Then try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to relieve such symptoms. Pinkham's has a grand soothing effect on one of woman's most important organs! LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S COMPOUND

Insist on TIP-TOP POTATO CHIPS
Famous for their Flavor

The flavor's fun for everyone

Mm! Crisp golden shreds! Let's have more goodness! Kellogg's Corn-Soya's a joy to eat, makes a good-for-you breakfast that's certainly satisfying. And the cost per serving, with milk and sugar, is really small. Get some today.

Kellogg's CORN-SOYA SHREDS

the Twin-Treat breakfast FLAVOR - NOURISHMENT

AT PENNEY'S

Men's Dress Shirts

$1.79

Penney priced to save you money. These lovely shirts are sanforized for permanent fit. Fine assortment of stripes or small prints. Sizes 14 to 17 in assorted sleeve lengths. For your pocketbook's sake, get the Penney buying habit!

Driving Refreshed Is Easier Driving

DRINK Coca-Cola

5¢

BOTTLED UNDER AUTHORITY OF THE COCA-COLA COMPANY BY
THE FAYETTE COCA-COLA BOTTLING CO.
130 South Fayette St. Washington C. H., Ohio

For Your Convenience !!

4 DELIVERIES A DAY

9:30 A. M.
10:30 A. M.
2:00 P. M.
4:00 P. M.

ENSLEN'S

We Deliver 2585 2515

What a GREAT difference GOOD CLEANING makes!

Also ONE DAY SERVICE

How many times have you wished you had a certain garment for special occasions.

We can help you, for we have the latest and most modern equipment.

Also we do not send your garments to some other city to be cleaned and finished.

Bob's Dry Cleaning
QUALITY SERVICE

Free Pick Up and Delivery Service

1/4 Mile East on 3-C Highway Phone 5661

Blondie

Barney Google and Snuffy Smith

Etta Kett

Donald Duck

Brick Bradford

Popeye

Muggs McGinnis

Little Annie Rooney

By Chic Young

By Billy DeBeck

By Paul Robinson

By Walt Disney

By William Ritt and Clarence Gray

By Wally Bishop

By Brandon Walsh

Snappy Kate Wins Free-for-All

Two Races Are Won In Straight Heats Last Day of Fair

Week's Fastest Mile Is Paced by Joanis

Saturday, the last day of the Fayette County Fair, was the day for the favorites and near-favorites on the three-race harness racing card.

And, while two of the races were won in straight heats and the other with a two-out-of-three performance, not one heat was really wrapped up until the winner crossed the finish line.

The two $750 free-for-all races—one for pacers and one for trotters—attracted some of the best horses of the four-day meeting. Most of them were veteran campaigners, and the fields were sent off to good starts because of experience.

Fastest Mile of Week

Joanis, a chestnut mare by Highland Scott, went the fastest mile of the meeting. She was timed in 2:05 4-5 in winning the first heat of the free-for-all pace. That was within 2 1-5 seconds of the old track record. She won the other two heats in 2:08 and 2:08 1-5.

The Osborn & Starbuck Store trophy was presented to her owner, the Idle Hour Stables of Marion, Kickersham was the driver.

Harry Short's Gene Abbe was second in all three heats. The best mutual odds were paid on Joanis in the first heat—$5.40 to win, $2.20 and $2.20.

Linda B., owned by G. D. Baker of Washington C. H., and a member of the Fair Board, finished fifth, fifth and fourth and Ohio Abbe, owned and driven by Ernie Smith, also of Washington C. H., finished third, fourth and fifth.

Snappy Kate Wins One of the old favorites of Fayette County race fans gave them the thrill of the day when Snappy Kate came pounding down the stretch to win the first heat of the free-for-all trot in 2:09 flat.

A consistent winner for the past three seasons, this was her first victory of this one. She is owned by Frank Junk of near Austin and was trained here by Frank Lanum who drove her Saturday afternoon. She was nosed out in the second heat by Gay Song, but came back to win the last heat in a driving finish.

She paid $9.40 to win the first heat, but went at even money or less afterward.

The Moore's Dream House trophy was presented to her owner for whom she also won the $100 bill put up by Frank S. Jackson for the pacer trained here winning a dash in the fastest time.

Three-Heat Winner Betty Chief, owned and driven by J. F. Cartnal of Hanover, won the $600 over night event for 2:22 pacers in straight heats without being pressed too hard. The best mile was in 2:08 1-5.

But it was a scramble in every heat for the place and show honors.

Pete G was second in the first and last heats and fourth in the second. Zip Up placed in the second heat, but was fourth in the first and third.

Baldy took third money in the first heat, Hulda Ann was third in the second and Mary Knight, owned and driven by H. M. Garrity of Washington C. H., was third in the last heat in a driving finish that missed the place position by less than half a length.

The G. D. Baker & Son trophy was presented to the owner of Betty Chief.

The best mutual return of the three heats was $8.40 straight paid on Betty Chief in the first heat. She was even money in the second and the odds-on favorite in the last outing of the nine-horse field.

FREE FOR ALL PACE

(Purse $750)

Joanis (chm) (Wicker'm) 1 1 1
Gene Abbe (H. Short) 2 2 2
Flying Stone (C. Short) 3 3 3
Ohio Abbe (Smith) 4 4 4
Linda B (Cox) 5 4 5
Sally Hal (Riegler) 6 4 6

(Joanis by Highland Scott)
Time: 2:05 4-5; 2:08; 2:08 1-5.

Mutuels:
Joanis: $5.40, $2.20, $2.20; Gene Abbe: $2.20, $2.20; Flying Stone: $2.60, $2.60; Joanis: $3.80, $2.20, $2.60; Gene Abbe: $2.20, $2.20, $2.20; Joanis: $2.40, $2.20; Gene Abbe: $2.20.

FREE FOR ALL TROT

(Purse $750)

Snappy Kate (Lanum) 1 2 1
Song Girl (Caton) 2 1 2
Lark (McMillen) 3 3 3
Smokey Stout (Wicker'm) 4 3 5
Bay Direct (McCon'hey) 5 4 4
Maiden Lady (Smith) 6 dr.

(Snappy Kate, bm, by Jack The Ripper)

Time: 2:09; 2:09 4-5; 2:10 4-5.

Mutuels:
Snappy Kate: $9.40, $4, $3.20; Song Girl: $3.40, $2.40; Lark: $2.20; Song Girl: $5.40, $2.60; Snappy Kate: $2.80; Snappy Kate: $4, $2.60; Song Girl: $2.40.

2:22 PACE

(Purse $600)

Betty Chief (Cartnal) 1 1 1
Pete G (Jones) 2 4 2
Zip Up (Riegler) 4 2 4
Baldy H. (Wickersham) 3 6 5
Mary Knight (Garrity) 5 3 3
Hulda Ann (Short) 7 3 6
Air Pilot (Cox) 9 7 3
Sunsh'e Direct (McCon'y) 6 7 8
Eddie Hal (Snyder) 8 8 9

(Betty Chief, bkf, by Chief Abbe Dale)

Time: 2:10 1-5, 2:08 1-5, 2:11 2-5.

Mutuels:
Betty Chief: $8.40, $4.60, $3.60; Pete G: $7.60, $3.80; Baldy G: $3; Betty Chief: $4; $3; $2.60; Zip Up: $4.60, $2.40; Hulda Ann: $5.20; Eddie Hal: $3, $3; Pete G: $3.

There is a Tide

Copyright, 1948, by Agatha Christie
Distributed by King Features Syndicate

SYNOPSIS
Eccentric Mrs. Kathie Cloade seeks Hercule Poirot's aid in determining whether or not one Robert Undermy had died in Africa during the war, as reported. Her "spirit guide" tells her Undermy is alive, she says. Mrs. Marchmont, Lynn Marchmont, once from her home of her rich Uncle Gordon Cloade's death in a London blitz, finds her family, who had been supported by him in Brancal district. His young beautiful widow Rosaline, a mysterious stranger, will inherit his vast wealth.

CHAPTER FOUR
LYNN was silent. She was not more mercenary than most, but she would not have been human if she had not resented the new state of affairs because the old will was invalidated. It was not, she felt, at all what Gordon Cloade himself would have envisaged. The bulk of his fortune he, certain provisions he would certainly have made for the family he had encouraged to depend upon him. Again and again he had urged them not to save, not to make provisions for the future. She had heard him say to Jeremy, "You'll be a rich man when I die." To her mother he had often said, "Don't worry, Adele. I'll always look after Lynn—you know that, and I'd hate you to leave this house—it's your home. Send all the bills for repairs to me." Rowley he had encouraged to take up farming. Antony, Jeremy's son, he had insisted should go into the Guards and he had always made him a handsome allowance. Lionel Cloade had been encouraged to follow up certain lines of medical research that were not immediately profitable and to let his practice run down.

Lynn's thoughts were broken into. Dramatically, and with a trembling lip, Mrs. Marchmont produced a sheaf of bills. "And look at all these," she wailed. "What am I to do, Lynn? The bank manager wrote me only this morning that I'm overdrawn. I don't see how I can be. I've been so careful. But it seems my investments just aren't producing what they used to. Increased taxation, he says. And all these yellow things, War Damage Insurance or something—one has to pay them whether one wants to or not. Lynn took the bills and glanced through them. There were no records of extravagance amongst them. They were for slates replaced on the roof; the mending of fences; replacement of a worn-out kitchen boiler—a new main water pipe. They amounted to a considerable sum.

Mrs. Marchmont said piteously, "I suppose I ought to move from here. But where could I go? There isn't a small house anywhere—there just isn't such a thing. Oh, I don't want to worry you with all this, Lynn. Not just as soon as you've come home. But I don't know what to do. I really don't."

Lynn looked at her mother. She was over sixty. She had never been a very strong woman. During the war she had taken in evacuees from London, had cooked and cleaned for them, had worked with the W.V.S., made jam, helped with school meals. She had worked fourteen hours a day in contrast to a pleasant easy life before the war. She was now, as Lynn saw, very near a breakdown. Tired out and frightened of the future.

A slow quiet anger rose in Lynn. She said slowly: "Couldn't this Rosaline—help?" Mrs. Marchmont flushed. "We've no right to anything—anything at all."

Lynn murmured. "I think you've a moral right. Uncle Gordon always helped."

Mrs. Marchmont shook her head. She said: "It wouldn't be very nice, dear, to ask favors—not of someone one doesn't like very much. And anyway that brother of hers would never let her give away a penny!"

And she added, heroism giving place to pure female cattiness: "If he really is her brother, that is to say!"

Frances Cloade looked thoughtfully across the dinner table at her husband.

Frances was forty-eight. She was one of those lean greyhound women who look well in tweeds. There was a rather arrogant ravaged beauty about her face which had no make-up except a little carelessly applied lipstick. Jeremy Cloade was a spare grey-haired man of sixty-three, with a dry expressionless face.

It was, this evening, even more expressionless than usual.

His wife registered the fact with a swift flashing glance.

A fifteen-year-old girl shuffled round the table, handing the dishes. Her agonized gaze was fixed on Frances. If Frances frowned, she nearly dropped something, a look of approval set her beaming.

It was noted enviously in Wamsley Vale that if anyone had servants it would be Frances Cloade. She did not bribe them with extravagant wages, and she was exacting as to performance—but her warm approval of endeavor and her infectious energy and drive made of domestic service something creative and personal. She had been so used to being waited on all her life that she took it for granted without self-consciousness, and she had the same appreciation of a good cook or a good parlor-maid as she would have had for a good pianist.

Frances Cloade had been the only daughter of Lord Edward Trenton who had trained his horses in the neighborhood of Wamsley Heath. Lord Edward's final bankruptcy was realized by those in the know to be a merciful escape from worse things. There had been rumors of horses that had signally failed to stay at unexpected moments, other rumors of inquiries by the Stewards of the Jockey Club. But Lord Edward had escaped with his reputation only lightly tarnished and had reached an arrangement with his creditors which permitted him to live exceedingly comfortably in the South of France. And for these unexpected blessings he had to thank the shrewdness and special exertions of his solicitor, Jeremy Cloade. Cloade had done a good deal more than a solicitor usually does for a client, and had even advanced guarantees of his own. He had made it clear that he had a deep admiration for Frances Trenton, and in due course, when her father's affairs had been satisfactorily wound up, Frances had become Mrs. Jeremy Cloade.

What she had felt about it no one had ever known. All that could be said was that she had kept her side of the bargain admirably. She had been an efficient and loyal wife to Jeremy, a careful mother to his son, had forwarded Jeremy's interests in every way and had never once suggested by word or deed that the match was anything but a free will impulse on her part.

In response the Cloade family had an enormous respect and admiration for Frances. They were proud of her, they deferred to her judgment—but they never felt really quite intimate with her.

What Jeremy Cloade thought of his marriage, nobody knew, because nobody ever did know what Jeremy Cloade thought or felt. "A dry stick" was what people said about Jeremy. His reputation both as a man and a lawyer was very high. Cloade, Brunsell and Cloade never touched any questionable legal business. They were not supposed to be brilliant, but were considered very sound. The firm prospered and the Jeremy Cloades lived in a handsome Georgian house just off the Market Place with a big old-fashioned walled garden behind it where the pear trees in Spring showed a sea of white blossoms.

It was to a room overlooking the garden at the back of the house that the husband and wife went when they rose from the dinner table. Edna, the fifteen-year-old, brought in coffee, breathing excitedly.

Frances poured a little coffee into the cup. It was strong and hot. She said to Edna, crisply and approvingly: "Excellent, Edna."

Edna went crimson with pleasure and went out marveling nevertheless at what some people liked. Coffee, in Edna's opinion, ought to be a pale cream color, ever so sweet, with lots of milk!

In the room overlooking the garden, the Cloades drank their coffee, black and without sugar. They had talked in a desultory way during dinner, of acquaintances met, of Lynn's return, of the prospects of farming in the near future, but now, alone together, they were silent.

(To Be Continued)

Eagles Edged, 10-9 by Chillicothe

A ninth inning rally that gave the home town fans thrills and something to cheer over, just failed to reach and the Eagles went down to a fighting defeat, 10 to 9, Chillicothe's Meads at Wilson Field here Sunday afternoon.

The Eagles overcame the Meads' 4-run spurge in the first inning and had the score tied 7-7 by the time they reached the seventh inning.

Then the Meads broke out on another rampage that was good for three tallies and the lead in the eighth.

With a "we did it before and can do it again" spirit, the Eagles opened up their attack in the last inning. It netted them two runs, just one sort of a tie and two runs from a victory.

The Mead win left the Chillicothe team at the top of the SCO League and dropped the Washington C. H. outfit to fourth place in the six-team loop.

Prather, with three hits in five trips, paced the Eagles' 14-hit offense. His clouts included a home run and a double.

Alger also smacked out a round-tripper and a single in five trips and McGinnis got two for four, including a double.

The game was one of the best of the season from several points of view. First of all it was packed with sensations as the two teams sec-sawed toward the thrilling climax in the last two frames. It also was one of the best offensive battles put up by the Eagles. Inning and had the score tied at 7-7 by the time they reached the seventh inning.

Then the Meads broke out on another rampage that was good for three tallies and the lead in the eighth.

With a "we did it before and can do it again" spirit, the Eagles opened up their attack in the last inning. It netted them two runs, just one sort of a tie and two runs from a victory.

The Mead win left the Chillicothe team at the top of the SCO League and dropped the Washington C. H. outfit to fourth place in the six-team loop.

Prather, with three hits in five trips, paced the Eagles' 14-hit offense. His clouts included a home run and a double.

Alger also smacked out a round-tripper and a single in five trips and McGinnis got two for four, including a double.

The game was one of the best of the season from several points of view. First of all it was packed with sensations as the two teams sec-sawed toward the thrilling climax in the last two frames. It also was one of the best offensive battles put up by the Eagles. Inning and had the score tied at 7-7 by the time they reached the seventh inning.

Then the Meads broke out on another rampage that was good for three tallies and the lead in the eighth.

With a "we did it before and can do it again" spirit, the Eagles opened up their attack in the last inning. It netted them two runs, just one sort of a tie and two runs from a victory.

The Mead win left the Chillicothe team at the top of the SCO League and dropped the Washington C. H. outfit to fourth place in the six-team loop.

Prather, with three hits in five trips, paced the Eagles' 14-hit offense. His clouts included a home run and a double.

Alger also smacked out a round-tripper and a single in five trips and McGinnis got two for four, including a double.

The game was one of the best of the season from several points of view. First of all it was packed with sensations as the two teams sec-sawed toward the thrilling climax in the last two frames. It also was one of the best offensive battles put up by the Eagles. Inning and had the score tied at 7-7 by the time they reached the seventh inning.

Then the Meads broke out on another rampage that was good for three tallies and the lead in the eighth.

With a "we did it before and can do it again" spirit, the Eagles opened up their attack in the last inning. It netted them two runs, just one sort of a tie and two runs from a victory.

The Mead win left the Chillicothe team at the top of the SCO League and dropped the Washington C. H. outfit to fourth place in the six-team loop.

Prather, with three hits in five trips, paced the Eagles' 14-hit offense. His clouts included a home run and a double.

Alger also smacked out a round-tripper and a single in five trips and McGinnis got two for four, including a double.

The game was one of the best of the season from several points of view. First of all it was packed with sensations as the two teams sec-sawed toward the thrilling climax in the last two frames. It also was one of the best offensive battles put up by the Eagles. Inning and had the score tied at 7-7 by the time they reached the seventh inning.

Then the Meads broke out on another rampage that was good for three tallies and the lead in the eighth.

With a "we did it before and can do it again" spirit, the Eagles opened up their attack in the last inning. It netted them two runs, just one sort of a tie and two runs from a victory.

The Mead win left the Chillicothe team at the top of the SCO League and dropped the Washington C. H. outfit to fourth place in the six-team loop.

Prather, with three hits in five trips, paced the Eagles' 14-hit offense. His clouts included a home run and a double.

Alger also smacked out a round-tripper and a single in five trips and McGinnis got two for four, including a double.

The game was one of the best of the season from several points of view. First of all it was packed with sensations as the two teams sec-sawed toward the thrilling climax in the last two frames. It also was one of the best offensive battles put up by the Eagles. Inning and had the score tied at 7-7 by the time they reached the seventh inning.

Then the Meads broke out on another rampage that was good for three tallies and the lead in the eighth.

With a "we did it before and can do it again" spirit, the Eagles opened up their attack in the last inning. It netted them two runs, just one sort of a tie and two runs from a victory.

The Mead win left the Chillicothe team at the top of the SCO League and dropped the Washington C. H. outfit to fourth place in the six-team loop.

Prather, with three hits in five trips, paced the Eagles' 14-hit offense. His clouts included a home run and a double.

Alger also smacked out a round-tripper and a single in five trips and McGinnis got two for four, including a double.

The game was one of the best of the season from several points of view. First of all it was packed with sensations as the two teams sec-sawed toward the thrilling climax in the last two frames. It also was one of the best offensive battles put up by the Eagles. Inning and had the score tied at 7-7 by the time they reached the seventh inning.

Then the Meads broke out on another rampage that was good for three tallies and the lead in the eighth.

With a "we did it before and can do it again" spirit, the Eagles opened up their attack in the last inning. It netted them two runs, just one sort of a tie and two runs from a victory.

The Mead win left the Chillicothe team at the top of the SCO League and dropped the Washington C. H. outfit to fourth place in the six-team loop.

Prather, with three hits in five trips, paced the Eagles' 14-hit offense. His clouts included a home run and a double.

Alger also smacked out a round-tripper and a single in five trips and McGinnis got two for four, including a double.

The game was one of the best of the season from several points of view. First of all it was packed with sensations as the two teams sec-sawed toward the thrilling climax in the last two frames. It also was one of the best offensive battles put up by the Eagles. Inning and had the score tied at 7-7 by the time they reached the seventh inning.

Then the Meads broke out on another rampage that was good for three tallies and the lead in the eighth.

With a "we did it before and can do it again" spirit, the Eagles opened up their attack in the last inning. It netted them two runs, just one sort of a tie and two runs from a victory.

The Mead win left the Chillicothe team at the top of the SCO League and dropped the Washington C. H. outfit to fourth place in the six-team loop.

Prather, with three hits in five trips, paced the Eagles' 14-hit offense. His clouts included a home run and a double.

Alger also smacked out a round-tripper and a single in five trips and McGinnis got two for four, including a double.

The game was one of the best of the season from several points of view. First of all it was packed with sensations as the two teams sec-sawed toward the thrilling climax in the last two frames. It also was one of the best offensive battles put up by the Eagles. Inning and had the score tied at 7-7 by the time they reached the seventh inning.

Then the Meads broke out on another rampage that was good for three tallies and the lead in the eighth.

With a "we did it before and can do it again" spirit, the Eagles opened up their attack in the last inning. It netted them two runs, just one sort of a tie and two runs from a victory.

The Mead win left the Chillicothe team at the top of the SCO League and dropped the Washington C. H. outfit to fourth place in the six-team loop.

Prather, with three hits in five trips, paced the Eagles' 14-hit offense. His clouts included a home run and a double.

Alger also smacked out a round-tripper and a single in five trips and McGinnis got two for four, including a double.

The game was one of the best of the season from several points of view. First of all it was packed with sensations as the two teams sec-sawed toward the thrilling climax in the last two frames. It also was one of the best offensive battles put up by the Eagles. Inning and had the score tied at 7-7 by the time they reached the seventh inning.

Then the Meads broke out on another rampage that was good for three tallies and the lead in the eighth.

With a "we did it before and can do it again" spirit, the Eagles opened up their attack in the last inning. It netted them two runs, just one sort of a tie and two runs from a victory.

The Mead win left the Chillicothe team at the top of the SCO League and dropped the Washington C. H. outfit to fourth place in the six-team loop.

Prather, with three hits in five trips, paced the Eagles' 14-hit offense. His clouts included a home run and a double.

Alger also smacked out a round-tripper and a single in five trips and McGinnis got two for four, including a double.

The game was one of the best of the season from several points of view. First of all it was packed with sensations as the two teams sec-sawed toward the thrilling climax in the last two frames. It also was one of the best offensive battles put up by the Eagles. Inning and had the score tied at 7-7 by the time they reached the seventh inning.

Then the Meads broke out on another rampage that was good for three tallies and the lead in the eighth.

With a "we did it before and can do it again" spirit, the Eagles opened up their attack in the last inning. It netted them two runs,

Classified Advertising Rates
 Per word 1 insertion ..... 3c
 Per word 2 insertions ..... 5c
 Per word 3 insertions ..... 7c
 Per word 4 insertions ..... 9c
 (Minimum Charge 50c)
 Classified Ads received by 9 A. M. will be published the same day.
 The publisher reserves the right to edit or reject any classified advertising copy.
Errors in Advertising should be reported immediately. The Record-Herald will not be responsible for more than one incorrect insertion.
RATES—Six cents per line first 30 lines; 10 cents per line for next 15 lines;
 15 cents per line for each additional line.
CARD OF THANKS
 Card of Thanks are charged at the rate of ten cents per line.

Lost—Found—Strayed

LOST—Black leather billfold containing money and picture, sometime Wednesday between Union and 826 Leesburg Avenue. Phone 33292. 152

Special Notices

SELL ME your sewing machine. Prefer Singer! Pay top price, postal brings buyer. Write L. Seaco, Box 383, Dayton 1, Ohio. 177

McCoy Reunion

Descendants of James and Elizabeth Stuckey McCoy meet

Sunday, August 8,

At Cherry Hill School

For 27th Reunion

Please bring sweetened tea

Notice

The Merritt Reunion will be held Sunday, August 8, at Cherry Hill School. Bring basket and iced tea.
 Sec. Kathryn Cassell.

Wanted To Buy

WANTED TO BUY—One small hand cement mixer. Phone 24851 after 6 P. M.
 135

WANTED TO BUY—Twin baby buggy.
 Phone 41403. 135

Wanted To Rent

WANTED TO RENT—4, 5 or 6 room home, by reliable veteran and wife.
 Have one child, year old. Can give references. Write Box 123 c-o Record-Herald. 145f

Wanted Miscellaneous

WANTED—A home on a farm by two boys, 14 and 15 years old, can drive machinery and have other experience.
 See Mr. Spradley at the Dawson Farm or
 P. O. Box 11, Sabina, Ohio. 153

WANTED TO DO—Block and brick laying, also carpenter work and roofing.
 Phone 27791. 159

Automobiles For Sale

FOR SALE—1933 Plymouth A-1 condition, will sell reasonable. 606 Gibbs
 Avenue. 155

Used Cars

- 1947 Ford Tudor
- 1946 Chevrolet Fordor
- 1946 Plymouth Fordor
- 1942 Chevrolet Aero Sedan
- 1942 Ford Tudor
- 1940 Plymouth Fordor
- 1940 Ford Fordor
- 1940 Ford Tudor
- 1939 Pontiac Tudor
- 1939 Chevrolet Tudor
- 1939 Mercury Fordor
- 1939 Ford Tudor
- 1937 Plymouth Fordor
- 1935 Dodge Coupe
- 1933 Plymouth Tudor
- 1932 Ford Tudor

Come in today and trade for one of these good used cars or call 2503 and we will bring out the car of your choice.

Carroll Halliday

Your Ford Dealer

FOR SALE—1940 Hudson in good condition by private owner. Phone 42653. 150f

For Sale

1935 Tudor Ford

Excellent condition

Phone 26342

FOR SALE—1940 Plymouth Fordor, reconditioned body, six good tires, excellent motor. $895. Phone 21861. D. R.
 Murdoch. 149f

We Sold Your Neighbor

Why Not You?

Reliable - Dependable

Used Cars

Gosney-

Theobald & Co.

W. Elm St. & Greenfield Rd.

Phone 31171

FOR SALE—1947 Chevrolet truck, two speed axle, 12000 miles. Price $1241. 154

FOR SALE—1938 Chevrolet truck sedan, four new tires, in good running condition. Price $600 cash, 308 McElwain
 Street. Phone 27321. 154

FOR SALE—1946 Ford Super Deluxe club coupe, heater and heater. Low mileage. Very clean. Phone 3760 Sabina.
 Russell's Trading Post. 154

FOR SALE—1941 Ford pickup half ton truck with booster spring. Phone 3760
 Sabina. Russell's Trading Post. 154

FOR SALE—1947 Buick Super Sedanette radio, heater, spotlight, outside chrome mirrors, outside sun vision. This is a beautiful jet black like new.
 Phone 3760 Sabina. Russell's Trading
 Post. 154

FOR SALE—1937 DeSoto, price $525.
 David Snyder over Roush Restaurant.
 Jeffersonville. 155

FOR SALE—1937 Studebaker four door sedan, A-1 new tires, motor just overhauled. See this car at 318 Sixth Street after 3:30 any day. 154

FOR SALE—1940 Ford tudor, good condition. Excellent motor, new gears,
 new shock absorbers, five good tires.
 $900. Private owner. Call 26514. 155

Parts and Accessories
 For All Makes of General Motors Cars.
 See Us
R. Brandenburg
 524 Clinton Ave. Phone 2575
 Motor Sales, Inc.

BUSINESS

Business Service

AUCTIONEER—Kenneth Bumgarner
 Phone 43753. 152f

WILSON REFRIGERATION

SERVICE

COMMERCIAL AND

HOUSEHOLD

Have your equipment checked and serviced. Call 21123 before 9:00 A. M. or after 5:30 P. M.

WOOD'S Upholstering Shop Jeffersonville Ohio. Phone 4541. 253f

AUCTIONEER—W. O. Bumgarner
 Phone 43753. 255f

AUCTIONEER—Jess Schlichter. Phone
 Bloomington 4317. 230f

AUCTIONEER—Dale Thornton. Phone
 43401. 172f

W. E. WEAVER, Auctioneer, 207 N.
 Main Street. Phone 6864, 2561. 170f

Miscellaneous Service

ELECTRICAL SERVICE, Job or contract. Experienced workmen. Ernest
 O. Snyder. Phone 6683. 129f

Floor Sanding

and

Re-Finishing

Call Evenings Phone 41907

WARREN BRANNON

Floor Sanding

And Refinishing

A. H. Matson

Phone 22841

Insulate Now

Our Complete Service

gives you - -

Fuel Saving

Better Heating

Summer Comfort

Let us prove this by figuring your needs.

EAGLE

HOME INSULATORS

Sabina Call phone 2421

C. R. WEBB

Repair Service

TYPEWRITERS, ADDING machines repaired. Work guaranteed for one year. Reasonable prices. Patton's, 9221. 155

CURL ELECTRIC

SWEEPER SERVICE

Repair Service and Sales, All

Makes. Call for and deliver.

Satisfaction Guaranteed

Phone 34141

Market St. Entrance Cherry

Hotel Bldg.

EMPLOYMENT

Agents-Salesman Wt'd 20

Make $25

Selling 50 boxes 21 for $1 Xmas

Cards. Also, with name on 50 and 25 for $1. Napkins, coasters, stationery and complete line. Costs nothing to try. Send for samples and selling plan on approval.

Merit, 370 Plane Street, Dept. 505,

Newark 2, N. J.

Wanted

Man or Woman

Have wonderful opportunity for man or woman to earn

$50.00 per week in spare time while learning one of the most comprehensive resale plans ever introduced in the selling profession. We train you. Age no handicap. If interested, write

M. F. Barr, Box 131 c-o Record-Herald.

Help Wanted

KEEP YOUR job and make $50 weekly spare time selling new screwdrivers,

 P. O. Box 201, Beverly Hills, Cal. 153

WANTED—Warehouse foreman, must have experience. Write Box 129 c-o Record-Herald. State age, experience and give references. 154

BROWN & SHARPE and ACME-GRID-LEY Automatic Screw machine operators and set-up men. State age, previous experience and wages expected. Can offer steady work for men who can qualify. TOOL GRINDERS, experience on flat, dovetail and circular type tools.
 Must have at least three years experience. Steady work and day work rate.
 Write Box 125 c-o Record-Herald. 156

RELIABLE WHITE WOMAN for care of children and housework. Good wages, stay nights. Reference required.
 Write Box 121 c-o Record-Herald. 149f

WANTED—Grill man, night work, good wages. Apply in person Brown's Drive
 In. 79f

Situations Wanted

WANTED—Position as beauty operator.
 Prefer to work in town. Can give reference. Phone 33972. Minnie Satterfield. 155

Farm Implements

WANTED—One row New Idea condition. Excellent motor, new gears,
 new shock absorbers, five good tires.
 $900. Private owner. Call 26514. 155

FARM MACHINERY SALE—Saturday,
 August 7, 1947, 10:30 A. M., Greenville, Ohio. Corn pickers, all makes and one two rows. Tractors, all makes and sizes.
 Combined drills, disc plows, balers cars, trucks. FARMERS: Bring anything you wish to sell. Lease FARM Equipment. Phone 1319. 154

FARM PRODUCTS

Hay-Grain-Feed

FOR SALE—Corn. Phone 26912. 155

Livestock For Sale

FOR SALE—Registered Hampshire male hog. Phone 2668-Frankfort, Ohio.
 Waldo Purdom. 155

FOR SALE—Fresh cow with second calf. Phone 44803. 155

FOR SALE—Extra good milk cow, K. K.
 Knox, Jeffersonville. 154

POLAND CHINA boars, a good selection to choose from. C. G. and T. H.
 Parrett. 96f

FOR SALE—35 head registered Shropshire yearling rams, ewes at all times.
 Roy C. Davis and Sons Rt. 1-Highland,
 Ohio. 156

FOR SALE—Hereford bull, 15 months old, extra good, eligible to register.
 Hugh Rolfe, Rt. 2-Sabina. 154

REGISTERED O. I. C. male hog, E. P.
 Lamb, Staunton, Ohio. 138f

Poultry-Eggs-Supplies

HIGHEST PRICE paid for poultry. Call Nellie Blair, Bloomington 3981 after
 7 P. M. 156

Birds-Cats-Dogs-Pets

FOR SALE—Pointer puppies. Brown and white. Charles Wood, corner
 Lewis and Gregg Streets. 154

MISCELLANEOUS

Good Things To Eat

HOME GROWN PRODUCE—Plenty of good sweet corn, Kentucky Wonder beans, ripe tomatoes, Ross County Cobbier potatoes, Indiana cantaloupes, Tom Watson watermelons, 1½ miles south of Greenfield on State Route 41. BAXLA'S
 ROADSIDE MARKET. 153

FOR SALE—Fries. Phone 41352. 154

HOME-GROWN PEACHES, coming peaches, now ready Jubilee and Hale Hovine Yellows, freestone, tree-ripened fruit, picked fresh every day. $5 bushel up. Bring baskets, open Sunday till 5 o'clock, 1½ miles south of Greenfield on Route 44, BAXLA'S ROADSIDE MAR-KET. 153

PEACHES

Hale -- Haven

Now Ready

$3.00 per bushel

In Your Container

Closed Sundays

Brown's

Fruit Farm

South Salem, Ohio

HOT HOUSE tomatoes, No. 2 and culls on sale Monday, Thursday and Saturday afternoons. Jensen's Greenhouse,
 Lewis Street. 72f

Household Goods

FOR SALE—Mahogany glass top knee hole desk and chair, excellent condition, price $45.00. Phone 26514. 155

FOR SALE—Household goods and antiques. Ernest Rice, 619 Columbus
 Avenue. 155

FOR SALE—Small gas oven, large mirror, bedspread. These items are good.
 324 Lewis Street. 153

FOR SALE—Electrolux refrigerator, Everhot toaster, appliance, odder-range, high chair, twin bedroom suite other articles. Call 32391. 154

MODERN THREE-PIECE new bedroom suite. Reasonably priced. Call 5454. 153

NOW THAT little Junior is crawling, keep the rugs clean with odorless
 Fina Foam. Craig's-Second Floor. 165

GAS RANGE, good condition, 554 Clinton Avenue. Phone 5461. 153

Miscellaneous For Sale

FOR SALE—Wallpaper steamer. Phone
 24774. 155

PROTECT YOUR davenport from moths for 50c a year. One spraying of Berliou stops moth damage for 5 years or Ber-liou pays the damage. Downtown Drug Store. 153

FOR SALE—Good used commode. 223
 Green Street. 153f

USED ELECTRIC lawn mower, good condition, $40. Phone 5072. 154

A Real Bargain

Forked Ohio No. 7 Lump Coal!
 Delivered in your bin in 5 to 6 ton lots at $10.00 per ton

Order Now

Washington Coal Co.

Phone 9811

TERMITES WORK the year round. Be safe. Have your home inspected now.
 save repair. 11 years experience. odder-less. 7 years guaranteed. For free inspection call your local Termitox representative, Edward Payne, phone 3412
 154f

Refrigerators

Free Pickup

Serviced and Sold

Walter Coil

Phone 31833 Market at Fayette

OUTBOARD MOTORS, Johnson Sea-horse, Outboard oil and gear grease.
 Call O. M. Reigel, 23271. 63f

For Sale

Galvanized Pipe

1½ — ¾ — 1 — 1½

Coil's Repair Shop, Green St.

NEW SINGER sewing machines and vacuum cleaners sold and purchased.
 All makes repaired. Will be in Washington, C. H. and vicinity every Tuesday. Call or write Singer Sewing Machine Company, 23 North Paint St. Chillicothe, Ohio. Phone 2272. 116f

Limestone

</

58 Clubbers Attending Camp At Camp Clifton

Logan Co. Members Also Attending Annual Event

Fayette County 4-H Club organization will go into its 23rd year of 4-H club camping this week, W. W. Montgomery, county agent, said Monday.

Fayette and Logan counties will join together at Camp Clifton with an enrollment of 58 Fayette County boys and girls and 70 Logan County 4-H boys and girls.

For the first time these two counties will use the new dining room recently completed. The building is 40 by 60 feet, with a kitchen at one side 28 by 30 feet.

Many local people will be on the camp staff. The complete staff and duties are as follows:

Jack E. Hufford—Camp Director; Logan County; W. W. Montgomery—ass't Camp Director; Mrs. Thelma Perry—Camp Cook; Mrs. Farrell Schultz, R. N. Health Nurse, Logan County; Mrs. Richard Marquis, Clara McCalla—Vespers, Logan Co.; Mrs. Doris Stephenson and Mrs. Edwin Cunningham—Campfire, Fayette County; Ward McDuffee, Jr. Fulwyler—Recreation—Logan County; Miss Margaret Watson—music—Fayette County; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Cobb, and Margaret Watson—crafts; Albert Cobb—flag ceremonies—Fayette County; Elwood Stroup—wildlife Extension Service—Greene County.

The daily program schedule is as follows:

6:45 A. M., Reveille; 7:10 A. M., Flag Raising, unity and rhythm; 7:15 A. M., Jumpers; 7:30 A. M., Breakfast; 8:30 A. M., Health & sanitation, conservation and vesper planning; 9:00 A. M., Swimming Instruction for beginners, and tent inspection by camp nurses; 10:00 A. M., Swimming and crafts; 11:15 A. M., Council assembly; 11:45 A. M., Jumpers; 12:00 noon, Dinner; 1:00 P. M., Free Time; 2:00 P. M., Swimming; 3:00 P. M., Campfire and vesper practice, crafts; 4:00 P. M., Recreation and crafts; 5:45, Jumpers; 6:00 P. M., Supper; 7:20 P. M., Lowering of colors; 7:30 P. M., Vesper Service; 8:15 P. M., Evening program and recreation; 9:30 P. M., Campfire Program; 10:30 P. M., Tatt-to; 10:40 P. M., Taps.

Club members attending Camp from Fayette County will be Joe S. Wilson, Bobbie Chaney, Dean Morrow, John David Dray, Bobby Rife, Pettus Rife, Bill Case, Robert Leath, Junior Arnold, Roger Sollars.

Michael Cunningham Billy McFadden, Oliver Vannorsdall, Bobby Kimmey, Oliver Iden, Dean Hawk Danny Joe Palmer, Howard Smith.

Jo Ann Bock, Nancy Stephenson, Shirley Dufford, Jo Lynn Parrett, Marilyn Cunningham, Joyce Rummans, Gwendolyn Burr, Dinah Davis, Joann Davis, Marcia Lynn Fletcher, Beverly Baughn, Marilyn J. Parrett, Donna Ann Andrews, Barbara Lee Barger, Mary Lou Sollars, Alea Massie.

Jerry Bachelor, Joanne Swaney, Karma Kay Knox, Jane Roberts, Shirley Cockerill, Jo Ann Cockerill, Sally Lewis, Dianna Elliott, Paddy Boso Patty Hurt, Nancy Rife, Avonelle Pollard, Mary McDonald, Nancy Kimmey, Wilma Salyers, Sue Ann Scott, Ruth Ann Brookover, Helen Louise Hynes, Sue Ann Christopher Joan Campbell, Beverly Allen, Patricia A. Miller and Jo Ann Williams.

Miss Nellie Terrell Dies in Leesburg

Misses Miriam and Alice Perdue have received word of the death of their cousin, Miss Nellie Terrell, of Leesburg, who died at her home early Sunday morning.

Miss Terrell was born on a farm near New Martinsburg and resided in that community for sometime.

Funeral services will be held at the Patterson Funeral Home in Leesburg, Wednesday at 2 P. M., and interment will be made in the Walnut Creek Cemetery.

The Northern Lights are caused by an electrical discharge passing through the very low-pressure air at altitudes from 50 to 500 feet above the earth's surface.

Downtown Drug

Alligators Taken To Columbus Zoo

After seven years of keeping two alligators, Harry Todd took them to the Columbus Zoo Saturday afternoon. He had kept them in his fish pond at 1006 South Fayette Street during this time.

One alligator which had escaped last week was found at the home of one of Todd's neighbors.

After receiving the alligators, the Columbus Zoo had a total of 14. Officials there were glad to receive the reptiles and, according to reports, the two have made many new friends there. One of Todd's alligators was three feet long, the other, two.

County Courts

TO COLLECT TAX

An action to collect sales tax has been filed in common pleas court, and is styled, The People of The State of Ohio, Division of Excise Tax, against Billy Thomas Wolfe, with amount of the tax $20.20 and penalty $3.04. Fred H. Zollinger represents the Division of Taxation.

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS

Emelene B. Sollars to E. L. Proshon, et al., part of lot 7, city. Harry E. Edwards to Davis Edwards, et al., lot 805, Bereman Addition.

J. M. Williams, et al. to Helen E. Wissinger, half of lot 853, Coffman Addition.

Calvin Davis, et al. to Myrtle Hicks, et al., lot 377, Wash. Imp. Co. Addition.

Emelene Sollars to Charles E. Osborne, et al., part of lots 73 and 74, city.

Mary Dawes to Charles E. Runnels, part of lot 54, East End Improvement Association.

County School Reports Overdue

Financial reports that were due August 1 from all school districts were not in the county superintendent's office Monday. Seven of the 11 districts are late with their reports on school employees, the records show.

These reports are necessary for the completion of the county superintendent's report to the state department which is due the 15th of August, according to Mrs. William J. Hilty at the superintendent's office.

Camera Fans Snap Models and Horses

Photographer's models and horses were reflected in the lenses of more than 50 camera fans at the central Ohio Camera Club's meeting at the Marysville swimming pool and riding academy Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Hays and Johnny Strevey attended from Washington C. H. The 20 models were photographed from all angles at the pool in the morning and the group photographed horses at the academy in the afternoon.

Air can be made to glow if it is reduced to very low pressure and if a high-voltage electrical discharge is passed through it.

- Phone 9071 -

Free Delivery

(Daily Except Sunday)

10 A. M. and 3 P. M.

Campbell's

Fayette St. Grocery

• Open Evenings and Sunday •

- EAVEY'S -

SUPER "E" STORES

New Yams	2 lbs.	25c
Lemons	6 for	25c
Onions Yellow	2 lbs.	15c
Pascal Celery	bunch	23c
Leaf Lettuce	lb	10c
Swift Premium Bacon	lb	75c
Bacon Squares	lb	39c
Bacon Ends	lb	39c

Police Arrest Auto Thief In Road Block Here

Four Drivers Picked Up for Driving While Intoxicated

Warren Butts of Indianapolis was arrested for auto theft by Washington C. H. police at 12:20 A. M. Sunday after a road block had been established on Clinton Avenue at the western city limits.

Officers Clarence Cooper, Virgil Harris and Robert Palmer, with Patrolman Frye of the State Highway Patrol, apprehended Butts, who allegedly had stolen an automobile in Wilmington and then headed this way. The police heard the Wilmington police call over the radio.

Butts was returned to Wilmington Sunday by State Highway Patrol officers where he will face charges.

Police were kept busy throughout the city over the week-end and many arrests were made. The offenders appeared in Police Court Monday morning.

Herbert F. Sherrod was arrested Saturday night on North North Street for driving while drunk. Judge Robert H. Sites fined him $250 and costs of $8.70 and suspended a six months' sentence in the Dayton work house.

Harry D. Diamond of Xenia forfeited $300 bond which he posted after being arrested for drunken driving on North Fayette Street Sunday afternoon.

Harry M. Bryan was fined $258.70 by Judge Sites for driving while intoxicated and was given a six months' sentence to the work house, which was suspended.

Another $258.70 fine was paid by Earl Peters of Sabina who was arrested for driving while drunk on West Market Street.

Given Jordan of Luckey, Ohio, arrested Sunday night for disturbing the peace and was fined $33.70 by Judge Sites. Harold D. Tompkins of Leesburg was picked up Saturday afternoon for reckless driving on Leesburg Avenue. He was also fined $33.70.

John W. Morris forfeited a $50 bond he posted after being arrested for being drunk and fighting in the streets Saturday night.

Eight others paid fines or forfeited bonds on charges of drunkenness.

Air Force Association Meeting Is Postponed

The regular meeting of the Washington C. H. squadron of the Air Force Association has been postponed. No reason for the postponement was given.

The meeting which had been scheduled for Tuesday at Memorial Hall will not be held until Aug. 17. The announcement said "all members are urged to be present" at the next meeting.

Church Is Looted

CLEVELAND, Aug. 2.—(AP)—Emmanuel Protestant Episcopal Church has suffered the loss of two antique candle holders, valued at $150, from its chapel. The theft was discovered by Milton Albers, 44, the sexton.

The Old Home Town

By Stanley

Religious Pageant Here Draws Large Audience

"The Light Eternal," a religious pageant presented at the High School Auditorium Sunday night, under auspices of the Fayette County Ministerial Association, attracted a large audience, which was well pleased with the production.

The pageant was built about the Biblical stories of Joseph, Moses and Christ, in the order given, and the final scene stressed the importance of parents giving proper attention to their children, to insure them being capable of assuming the leadership of tomorrow.

Appropriate costumes were worn by the large number taking part in the pageant, and the varied lighting effects added materially to the presentation.

Mrs. Russell Giebelhouse was at the piano throughout the pageant, playing for the choir of 22 voices, the soloists and also during parts of the narration and various scenes.

The choir, directed by Mrs. Rankin Paul, gave support to the pageant between scenes and to emphasize various parts of the impressive scenes of the pageant.

The pageant was under direction of Miss Rose-Marie McCarthy, and just before the performance, she was brought before the curtain by Rev. John K. Abernethy, praising for her hard work, and presented with a gift.

The first scene showed Rev. John K. Abernethy, pastor of the manager, as Moses and his portrayal was praiseworthy.

FRESH LAKE PICKEREL. Enslens' Dot Store.

The wonderful story of Christ was then unfolded, with Mrs. Joan Rhoads as Mary, Rev. Allan W. Caley as Joseph and Mary Lou Toops as the angel and at the conclusion of the dramatic scenes in the Christ story, the parents of the two children returned home, and were informed by the children that their grandfather had just told them the wonderful story taken from the Bible. The children asked the parents why they did not stay at home and tell them bedtime stories.

After the parents had given half-hearted excuses of attending club, bridge and other parties, the grandfather dramatically told them that "today's children are tomorrow's leaders," and urged more attention on the part of negligent parents, to insure their children being proper men and women to assume leadership in succeeding years.

He stressed the fact that nations who follow Christ are the enduring nations and that responsibility of parents to their children is a mighty factor to insure a Christian nation as well as a Christian family, and that those who follow Christ find the "light eternal."

In addition to those taking the special roles, above mentioned, the following persons were included in the cast, with the roles taken:

Judah, Richard Rankin; Simeon, Paul Grimm; Levi, Bill Lovell; Reuben, Laverne Tway; Stewart, Nathaniel Tway; Court Girls, Ann Dews; Guards, Willard Baird, Wayne Baird; Benjamin, Marvin Merritt; Aaron, William E. Davis; Miriam, Mary Ann Vrettos; Hannah, Patti Maddux; Nebulon, Pat Mitchell; Rachel, Barbara Knedler; Esther, Colleen Smith; Victim, Arden Hill; Shepherds, Dale Toole, W. Briggs, Paul Van Vorhis; Wisemen, Richard Rankin, Rankin Paul, Hal Summers; father, Keith Zimmerman; mother, Mrs. E. Elliott; soloists, Mrs. Marian Osborn, Mrs. Olive Icenhower. Chorus Ada Paul, Max Morrow, Mrs. Myers Kimmey, Mrs. Ruth Vance, Mrs. W. L. Peterson, Mrs. Darryl Weinrich, Connie Pyle, Clara Belle Robinson, Freda Coldiron, O. Icenhower, Ekard Peiter, M. Osborn, Kathryn King, Marie Tucker, Sue Paul, Mr. Rankin Paul, Mr. W. L. Peterson, Mr. Robert Sanderson, Kathleen Davis, Mrs. Leonard Korn, Mrs. Fred Enslens and Mrs. Elden Bethards.

MORE DIESELS

XENIA—The Pennsylvania Railroad will operate more trains with Diesels in the near future.

When You Entertain Banquet Groups For Dinner Make Your Reservations Well In Advance Tables For Small Special Parties On Request

GROUP DINNERS

RESERVATIONS WashingtonCoffeeShop PHONE 2555

Fancy Genuine U. S. No. 1 Carolina Yellow Freestone

PEACHES

Now Is the Time To Can Carolina Peaches.

Albers, as usual, advertise peaches for canning only when we think the price and quality of each state crop to be right. Elbertas from Illinois and later from Michigan will be advertised at the right time, at the right price.

CAN THEM NOW! 2-INCH AND UP BUSHEL $3.98 3 Lbs. 27c

SUNKIST LEMONS ICEBERG LETTUCE

Oranges Sunkist 288 Size 2 Doz. 55c
Apples U. S. No. 1 2 Lbs. 25c
Fancy Plums California 19c
Potatoes Red U. S. No. 1 10 Lbs. 49c

Fancy California Ideal for Refreshing Lemonade 360 Size Dozen 32c
California, Fancy Solid, Crisp Heads for Salad, 60 Size EA. 12 1/2c

Grapefruit Sunkist 80 Size 4 For 29c
Carrots Fancy 2 Bchs. 15c
Onions U. S. No. 1 3 Lbs. 19c
Potatoes California No. 1, Size A 10 Lbs. 55c

STRAWBERRIES

Luscious Sliced Berries With Sugar Added. Compare This Low Price and Save. Frozen, Lb. Pkg. 43c

DEL RICH MARGARINE

In the E-Z Color Pack Bag Saves Time. Less Muss. Lb. 43c

GRAPEFRUIT Florida, Sun-Ripened, 46-Oz. 14 1/2c	ORANGE Florida 46-Oz. 19 1/2c	TOMATO Park Hall No. 2 Can 9 1/2c
CORN BANTAM CREAM, Fancy Nugget No. 2 15c	WHITE CREAM Joan O'Arc. Big Value, No. 2 Can 17 1/2c	STOKELY Bantam Whole Grain, 17-Oz. 16 1/2c
PORK & BEANS Red Rose Brand 3 Cans 25c	Whole, Unpeeled Iced, White Pound Loaf 10c	Van Camp's No. 2 16c
APRICOTS Halves, Unpeeled, in Syrup, Valley Bloom, Lb. Can 12 1/2c	Enriched Iced, White Pound Loaf 10c	Big 20-Oz. Loaf 13 1/2c
ALBERLY BREAD Whole in Heavy Syrup, No. 2 16c	Tomatoes Packers Label, Good Quality, No. 2 Can 12 1/2c
Prune Plums Syrup, Heavy 23c	Viviano Spaghetti 3 Cans 27c
Fruit Cocktail Syrup, Lb. Can 27c	Iced Raisin Bread Fresh Loaf 17c
Grape Jelly Everymeal 2 Lb. Jar 27c	Jelly Custard Rolls 6 For 19c
Peanut Butter Big Value 2 Lb. Jar 57c

Refreshing DRINKS For These Hot Summer Days ALBERS HAVE A BIG VARIETY

Gotham Beer 3.2% 9c	Hi Power 10c
HI ROCK BEVERAGES 3 Qt. 29c
ALBERLY ICED TEA Spoon Giving, 8-Oz. 43c
BEER Wiedemann, Hudepohl or Burger, 3.2% (Case $2.50) 12-Oz. Bot. 11c
KOOL AID Assorted Fruit Flavors, Your Choice, Pkg. 4c
LEMON JUICE Pure California Real Gold, 5 1/2-Oz. 6 1/2c
Goca-Cola Pause That Refreshes, Plus Dep. 6 Bts. 25c

Summer canning PREPARE FOR WINTER

PARAWAX A Canning Necessity Sure Sealing, 12-Oz. 12 1/2c
JAR RINGS Black, Durable, 2 Doz. 5c
MASON ZINC CAPS Canning Value, Dozen 25c
CERTO The Sure Way to Make Jams and Jellies, 8-Oz. Bot. 22 1/2c
PEN JELL Fruit Pectin to Make Jellies Jell. Package 11c
MASON JARS Quarts Dozen 79c	Pts. Dozen 69c
KERR MASON LIDS Low Price Pkg. of 12 11c

PORK CHOPS From Young, Tender Pork. Serve Them Pan Fried. Rib-end. Pound 59c
SLICED BACON Swift's Premium Mild, Sweet Cure. Breakfast Treat. Compare Price. 8-Oz. Pkg. 39c
CUDAHY DRIED BEEF Cudahy Puritan. Delicious Creamed. Cello Wrapped. 4 Oz. 39c

SPICED LUNCHEON Sandwich Meat Treat. Tasty, Lb. 59c
ARMOUR STAR BOLOGNA All Meat, Large. By Piece, Lb. 47c
Better Living For More People WHITING FISH Ready for the Pan. Cleaned, Lb. 19c
STAR SLICED CORNED BEEF Fine Imported. Half Pound 33c

Albers SUPER MARKETS

TUNE IN! RONALD COLMAN YOUR HOST ON RADIO'S MOST BRILLIANT DRAMATIC PROGRAM Favorite Story WHIO - 9:30 P.M. TUESDAY The Favorite Story of MARY PICKFORD JAMES HILTON'S "Lost Horizon" Proudly sponsored by THE DAYTON POWER AND LIGHT COMPANY